

205 Leaders With Vision To Receive Keystone Honor

Kathy Hurst

Four-year Cloister FFA member Kathy Hurst noted she enjoys "learning about the environment I live in."

Kathy, 17, daughter of Leon and Betty Hurst, Ephrata, has served as chapter secretary. In addition, she served on the banquet and state committees. She raised capons for three years and won proficiency awards in dairy foods and wildlife management.

Kathy has received her Greenhand, chapter, and Red Rose degrees.

plans to graduate from Penn State and secure a job in an ag-related area.

Nicholas has served as chapter chaplain and assistant vice president. He served on the fruit sales, program of work, and budget committees, and participated in dairy cattle shows, land judging, and on the parliamentary procedure team. He completed SAE on-farm, dairy heifers, and market hog projects. He was selected by the Pennsylvania Council of Cooperatives to attend the national program in St. Louis. He received the Star Greenhand and Star Chapter honors.

Troy Ray Johnson

Five-year New Oxford FFA member Troy Ray Johnson plans to be a welder.

Troy, 18, son of Kenneth and Carole Johnson, Hanover, has served as chapter class representative. He served on the community service and participation committees and completed work experience on farm. Troy received the county degree.

Joseph Keefer

Joseph Keefer is the 17-year-old son of Marilyn and John Keefer of Thompsonstown. He has been a member of the Greenwood FFA chapter for three years and has held office as parliamentarian and served on the presidential committee. Projects include SAE and beef production. He has received greenhand and chapter degrees.

Joseph noted that he most appreciates FFA because most members don't care who you are or where you come from but they do care about what is inside of you.

Joseph plans to go through the Army and college and live a happy life.

Jim Kelley

Jim Kelly is the 18-year-old son of Gary and Darla Kelly of Granville Summit. He is a three-year member of Troy FFA where he served on committees for the canned food drive, fruit sales, and the tree committee. Projects include wild life conservation and dairy farm employment. He has earned the greenhand, chapter and county degrees.

"In FFA you do hands-on learning and you can build projects and see how things are done. It's not just a class you sit in all day," Jim said of his appreciation for the FFA program.

Jim plans to go into partnership with his dad on the family's Ponder Hill Farm.

Aimee Kincer

Aimee Kincer, the 18-year-old daughter of Tim and Dottie Kincer of Airville, has been a four-year member of Kenndard-Dale FFA. She has served as chaplain and a two-year term as president.

Committee membership included planning FFA week, a petting zoo, and a banquet. Projects included market hogs, pleasure horse, poultry, and rabbit. Aimee received awards for chapter leadership, state bronze record bookkeeping, and horse proficiency. She earned degrees in greenhand, chapter, and White Rose.

Aimee enjoyed meeting new people and learning about new things in her FFA involvement. She is uncertain of what she will be doing after graduation.

Jennifer Kinney

Jennifer Kinney, 18-year-old daughter of Nora and Glenn Kinney of Albion, is a three-year member of Albion FFA at Northwestern High School.

She has held the office of reporter and served on committees for banquet, volleyball, and football field activities.

Jennifer's projects include dog pleasure and home improvement. She received awards for small animal production and floriculture. She has also earned greenhand and chapter degrees.

Jennifer, who plans to become a teacher, said that she enjoys doing things with all the people she meets in FFA.

Jodi Knapsnyder

Jodi Knapsnyder, 17-year-old daughter of Jean and Barry Knapsnyder of Meyersdale, is a member of Myersdale FFA. During her four-year membership, Jodi has served a two-year term as secretary and on the spring trip, scholarship, and BOAC committees. Jodi participated in two off-farm work experiences and received greenhand and chapter degrees. She also received the top salesman award. Jodi plans to become a veterinarian technician.

Donny Knowles

Donny Knowles, son of Dave and Patty Knowles of North Bingham, is a three-year member of Headwaters FFA at Northern Potter High School.

He has held the office of reporter and served on committees for donkey basketball, citrus sales, and the activities program. Donny had a dog production project, received greenhand and chapter degrees, and the Favorite Senior Fall Athlete Award.

Donny plans to attend Alfred State College.

David Kocher

David Kocher, 18-year-old son of Robert and June Kocher of Pennsylvania Furnace, plans on working on the family farm after graduation. He had dairy projects and received awards for dairy production and crop production during his five-year membership with the State College Little Lions FFA Chapter. He also served as news reported. FFA was enjoyable, David said, because he was able to be with his friends and they always had a good time together.

Do you need to level the corral, clear a trail, or clean out the stalls? Then it's time for you to put a Kubota tractor to work.
