205 Leaders With Vision To Receive Keystone Honor

(Continued from Page B17)

Josh Koval

Josh Koval, 17year-old son of Robert and Janice Koval of Berlin is a member of the Berlin Brothersvalley FFA. Josh held offices for sentinel, chaplain, and student advisor. He served on committees for the parents and members banquet. livestock, and com growing contest. He had broiler projects and earned greenhand and chapter degrees.

Josh, who plans to work for Mountaineer Mining after graduation, said that he most enjoyed studying ag mechanics and ag production in FFA.

Nathan Kreider

Nathan Kreider, 17-year-old son of Scott and Vickie Kreider of Quarryville, is a four-year member of Solanco, where he served as sentinel and vice president.

Nathan worked on committees for supervised occupation and recreation. He completed projects for production, for which he received awards, and work experience.

Nathan has earned greenhand, chapter, and Red Rose degrees. Nathan said that he plans to work on the family farm after graduation, but will remember the group activities and the many things he learned through his FFA involvement.

Nick Kreider

Nick Kreider, 17-year-old son of Herb and Darlene Kreider of Quarryville, is a FFA member of Solanco for four years. Nick has served as BOAC chairman, and on committees for community service, public relations, and human resources.

Nich completed projects in tobacco, corn and farm work to earn county and state awards for proficiency in crops. He said, "Exhibiting my corn and tobacco at the fair and helping with chapter activities were my most enjoyable FFA activities. Nick earned greenhand, chapter and Red Rose degrees. He plans to work on the family farm after graduation.

Billy Joe Kress

Billy Joe Kress of Hanover is the son of Rick Kress. The New Oxford FFA'er held offices as treasurer and as president during his five-year membership.

Billy's projects included hog and work experiences. He also received an award for ag mechanics. He has earned the greenhand and county awards and plans on earning the FFA American degree after

Billy said that FFA has been most enjoyable for the opportunity to meet neat people and the interesting places the chapter

Kevin L. Kuhn

Kevin L. Kuhn, 17-year-old son of Kimothy and Judy Kuhn of McSherrystown, plans to remain active in FFA after graduation. He wants to work on the family farm and earn the American Degree.

The New Oxford FFA'er has held office as for three terms as class representative and as sentinel. Kevin's wildlife projects and work experience enabled him to earn greenhand and county degrees. He has earned awards in wildlife, star greenhand, and as star chaper farmer.

Kevin said that the chance to visit farms and see how they operate has opened up a whole new field of interest to him.

Korey Evan Kuhn

Korey Evan Kuhn, 17-year-old son of Judy and Kimothy Kuhn of McSherrystown, considers FFA valuable for the opportunities in leadership and for meeting new people from all over the state and county.

A four-year member of the New Oxford FFA. Korey held office as sentinel, reporter, and class representative.

Korey worked on the membership committee and completed wildlife and work experience projects. Korey received the Star greenhand award and the John L. Krasert award and degrees for greenhand, farmer and county. Korey plans to attend Pennylsvania College of Technology.

Daniel L. Laudermilch

Daniel Laudermilch is the 18year-old son of Eugene and Anita Laudermilch of East Earl. A member of Grassland FFA at Garden Spot High School, Daniel has held office as representative, BOAC, and second recording secretary. He completed projects for Operation Green Stripe, Brubaker Community Park, dog project, and off-farm work experience.

Committee membership included helping with community development and 12th alumni relations.

Daniel earned awards for Star Greenhand, proficiency award for poultry, star chapter, proficiency award for diversified livestock, proficiency award, and agricultural production.

Daniel plans a career in telecommunications. He said that he most enjoyed FFA for the opportunities to learn about a subject and then compete in a contest to show how much you learned, and the opportunity to win trips to compete against other FFA members around the U.S.

(GSI

(GSI)

Zachary Lawhead

Zachary Lawhead, 17, is the son of Nancy Lawhead, Clearfield. A member of the Clearfield Area FFA, Zachary has been sentinel in his chapter all four

He has completed work experience and plans to attend college. Zachary has earned the Greenhand. chapter farmer, and Star Chapter Farmer

David Lehman

David Lehman, son of Mary Jane Lehman of Ephrata is a four-year member of Cloister FFA at Ephrata High School. David served on committees for banquet, and the state committee. His projects included vegetable gardening and work experience at Oregon Dairy and Foxchase Golf Course.

David earned proficiency awards for vegetable production and food science tech-

David earned greenhand, chapter, and red rose awards. He plants to major in turfgrass science at Penn State.

David most enjoyed educational field trips and hands on experience that FFA offers. He also appreciated the welleducated teachers.

Justin Lehman

Justin Lehman, 18-year-old son of David and Debra Lehman of Palmyra, is a member of the Northern Lebanon FFA for four years. Justin held office as historian and was active in committees for recreation and public relations. Justin's projects included rabbit production, beef breeding, swine finishing, corn and soybean production.

He earned awards for star greenhand, swine production proficiency, second greenhand contest, chapter trophy for corn production, scholarship award, com production proficiency award, county project book awards, corn production, swine finishing, and beef breeding. State medals were earned for project books, beef breeding and corn production.

Justin has greenhand, chapter, and county degrees. He is most appreciative for FFA instruction on how to weld better as he believes it could be a valuable skill in his future. Justin plans to attend Penn

Amy Louise Long

Amy Louise Long is the 17-year-old daughter of Ruthann and David Long of Coudersport. She is a four-year member of Spudgrowers FFA of Coudersport Jr.-Sr. High School.

Amy held offices as reporter, secretary and vice president.

Membership in committees included involvement in chapter development, banquet, scholarship, public relations, community beautification, and program of activities.

Amy completed projects in equine science and pygmy goat production. She received awards for Star greenhand, public speaking, horse judging, creed, land judging, and parliamentary procedure.

She also earned greenhand, chapter, and keystone awards.

Amy plans to study pre-veterinary medicine at a four-year university.

FFA offers great leadership opportunities and chances to make new friends while renewing old friendships," Amy said.

Mark D. Malogrino

"Of the many experiences with FFA, I most enjoyed meeting FFA members and people in the field of agriculture from all over the state," noted four-year Spud Growers FFA member Mark Malogri-

Mark, 17, son of Paul and Barbara Blauvelt, Coudersport, indicated that FFA "allowed me to learn about the various interests and opportunities available in the field of agriculture, as well as develop new friendships."

Mark has served as chapter student adviser, treasurer, and president. He also

(Turn to Page B22)

(ED)

(GSI)

(GSI)

(GSI)

(SI)

(651)

(SI)

(SI)

(18D)

(51)

(51)

651

(651)

(SI)

(51)

(BI)

(51)

(SI)

(GSI)

(717) 584-2282

AFFORDABLE QUALITY