

You ask You answer

This column is for readers who have questions but don't know who to ask for answers.

"You Ask—You Answer" is for non-cooking questions. When a reader sends in a question, it will be printed in the paper. Readers who know the answer are asked to respond by mailing the answer, which will then be printed in the paper.

Questions and Answers to this column should be addressed to You Ask—You Answer, Lancaster Farming, P.O. Box 609, Ephrata, PA 17522. Attention: Lou Ann Good.

Do not send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for a reply. If we receive the answer, we will publish it as soon as possible. Please include your phone number because we sometimes need to contact the person to clarify details. We will not publish your phone number unless you request it.

'Home Is Where The Heart Is'

Ironstone Dr., East Earl. This traditional country home has been well planned and creatively built by the owners, L&L Builders. Many special features are tastefully incorporated. A special keeping room off the kitchen with a gas fireplace creates a nice place to relax. The white Quality custom kitchen with a breakfast nook overlooking the countryside creates a light airy atmosphere. Hardwood floors, wide baseboards, and wainscoting are features throughout the house. The formal dining room is graced with crown molding and a tray ceiling. Cherry built-in bookcases also feature a handmade Conestoga wagon. The spacious master bath has a whirlpool tub and privacy room. The open staircase leads to a gallery overlooking the great room and foyer.

• Michael and Barbara Martin, 298 Blackcreek Rd., East Earl. Cherry furniture and beautiful

unique window treatments tastefully decorate this brick traditional style home. The kitchen, with its extra touch of tile work and large island, and the breakfast nook with its large windows are great for entertaining. The master bath is equipped with a spacious whirlpool tub and double bowl vanity. An open foyer and loft area overlooking the family room are a few of the extra features. A unique built-in space in the wall of the family room has been added to highlight some antiques and hunting treasures.

• Brian and Karen Musser, 2230 Laurel Springs Dr., Narvon. This multicolored sandstone rancher is beautifully landscaped with rocks bordering wooded areas. The rock border and the house stones were all gathered from the property. The home features a large daylight basement with a woodstove, home office, and a full bath. The spacious kitchen has a variety of treasures displayed above oak cabinetry. Handmade quilts made by Karen's mother can be found throughout the house.

• Keith and Beverly Haselhorst, Walnut Valley Guest House, 380 Hammertown Rd., Narvon. Drive down a honeysuckle-lined lane, cross a little bridge, and you'll discover Walnut Valley. You'll enjoy the view of the rolling farmland, a sparkling stream, pond, a restored 18th century stone farmhouse and a 1750s guest house.

Beautifully refinished wide plank floors, Williamsburg colors, deep windowsills, and antique furniture are featured in the farmhouse and the guest home. Fifteen rolling acres of this property was part of the original Pool Forge Plantation.
