

Charles Good (left) with grandsons Steve and Phil, and son John

Charles Good of Lancaster was an innovator in 1972 when he bought the first of the family's many Harvestore® structures. Like his father, John is also a progressive farmer and recently had Penn Jersey install a new state-of-the-art Alliance™ unloader. John's sons Steve and Phil encouraged their dad to make the purchase because they wanted reliable, quality equipment.
