

Youth Talent Abundant At Recent 4-H Achievement Days

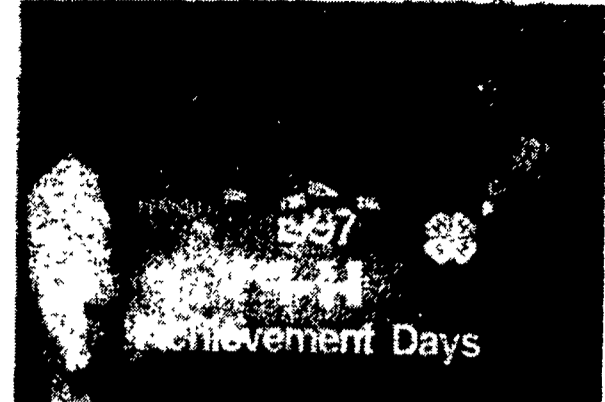

(Continued from Page C2)

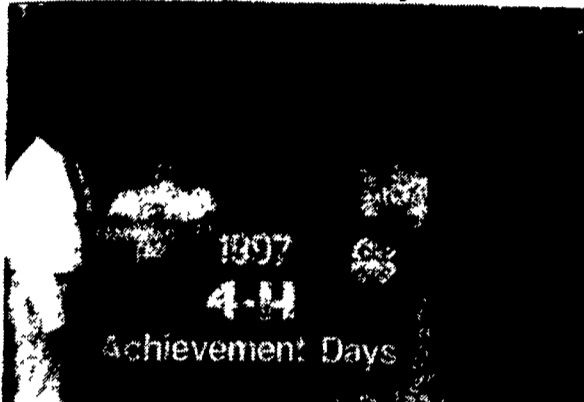

Hippology first place individual (tie) is Kelly Sullivan from Lancaster County.

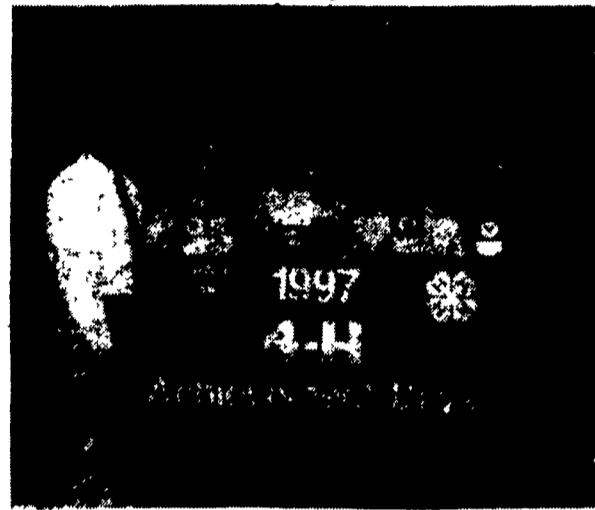

Horse Bowl first place individual is Carrie Wheeler from Erle County.

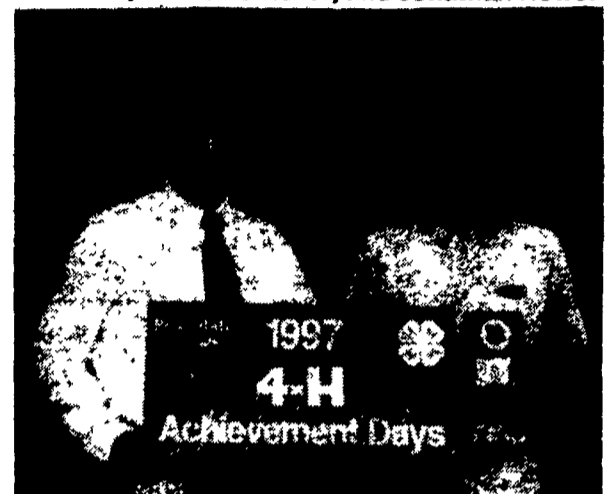

Livestock judging senior first place team members from Chester County are Nathan Howe, Derrick Frank, Conrad Smoker, and Jonathan Howe.

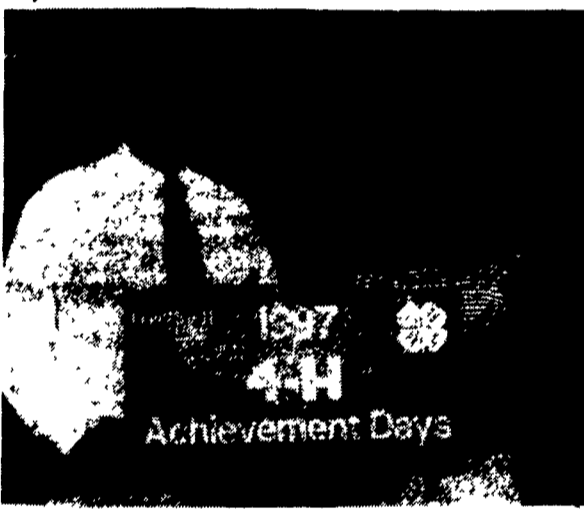

Hippology first place team members from Erle County are Sarah Reynolds, Cattle Klan, Katie Passerotti, and Lea Zoltowski (high individual tie).

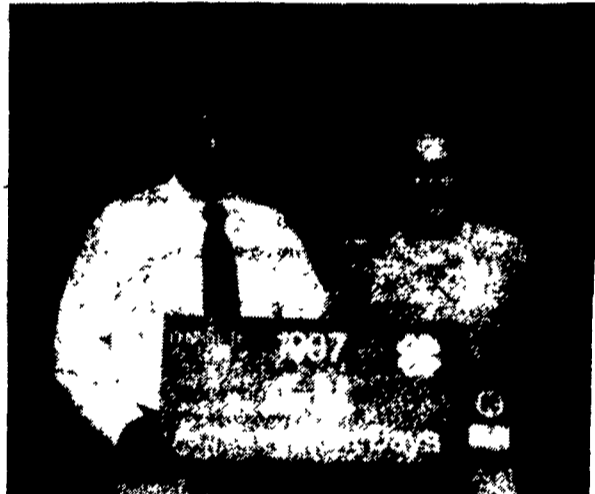

Horse Bowl first place team members from Indiana County are Angela Nealer, Lisa Kwisnek, Lauren Ferringer, and Jodi Flickinger.

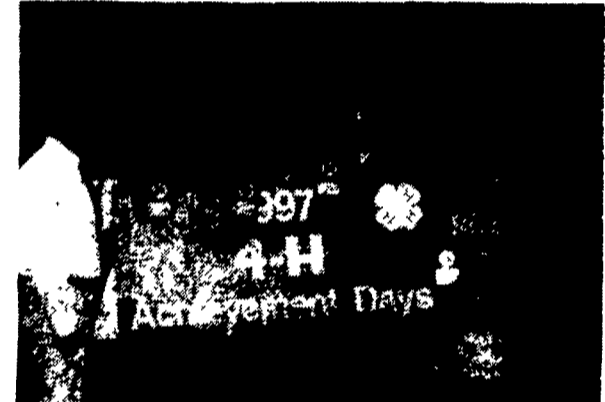

Canine Super Bowl first place individual is Stephanie Ahlbom from Chester County.

Horse judging junior first place individual is Erin Rife from Lancaster County.

Livestock judging junior first place individual is Jill Nelman from Berks County.

Canine Super Bowl first place team members from Perry County are Erin Paden, Stephanie Stebbins, Ragen Walker, Michelle Buckwalter, Chris Robbins (not pictured), and their coach Kay Walker.

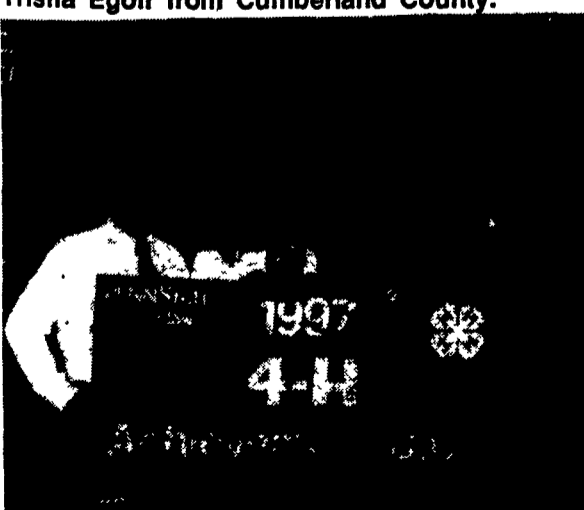

Horse judging senior first place individual is Trisha Egolf from Cumberland County.

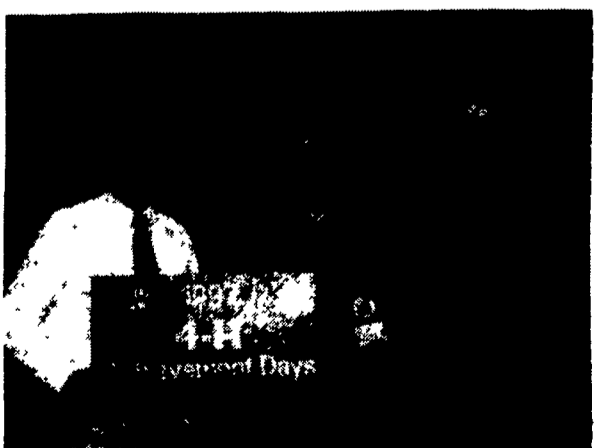

Livestock judging junior first place team members from York County are Beth Parrish, Joseph Emenhiser, and Jennifer Flinchbaugh.

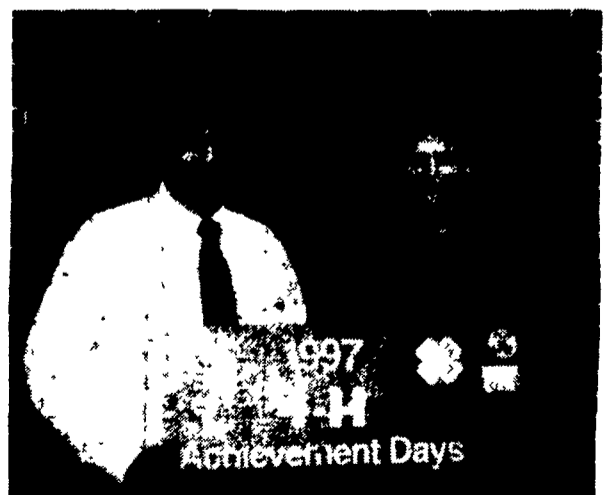

Rabbit and cavy first place team members from Dauphin County are Mary Beth Nell, Jason Kramer, Megan Potter, and Ruth Ann Baughman (high individual).

Horse judging senior first place team members from Perry County are Hilary Brady, Jory Bitting, and Bart Gill.

Livestock judging senior first place individual is Blaine Brown from Lebanon County with his coach Daryl Bomgardner.

Meat judging junior first place individual is Radell Peters from Lancaster County.

(Turn to Page C4)