

First Ephrata Fair Goat Show Held

The first goat show ever held at Ephrata Fair was won by Gerald Boyd, Ephrata, with his best-in-class heavyweight. Boyd was also the champion showman.

Jeremy Horst, New Holland, had the reserve grand champion that followed the champion in class. Horst was the reserve champion showman.

Dr. Robert Herr, the judge, complimented the fair association for adding goats to the show schedule. He said many people do not realize that the goat industry is centered in Lancaster County and that 2,000 head of goats are marketed locally each week.

Others in the seven-head show included: Jenny Zimmerman, Jimmy Zimmerman, and Josh Hoover.
