Daryl Rineer

Daryl Rineer, 17, son of Stephen and Donna Rineer of Pequea, is the current executive vice president of the Manor FFA Chapter, having served as chapter parliamentarian last year. He has been involved as a member of various chapter committees such as its Fruit Sale, Banquet and Awards Interview Night committees. He has also served as chairman of the chapter's Successful Farming, Fundraiser and FFA Week committees. His FFA projects include raising three acres of potatoes, raising livestock and showing them at local fairs, and work experience at Waribay Enterprises. He has received awards for vegetable proficiency and swine proficiency, and earned his Greenhand, Star-Chapter, and Red Rose degrees. He said he wants to go to college to study agricultural mechanics, and then establish himself with a tractor and equipment repair business.

Nicolas Rishel

Nicolas Rishel, 18, son of Kenneth and Linda Rishel of Mifflinburg is the current treasurer of the Mifflinburg FFA and the historian of the SUN Area FFA. He served as chapter assistant sentinel from 1995 to 1996. A member of the the BOAC and Finance committees, for three years he has served as chairman of the chapter BBQ Committee. His FFA project entails working off-farm. He earned his Greenhand, chapter and SUN Area degrees. He has received SAE awards, was a member of the Meats Evaluation Team, a chapter proficiency award for agricultural processing, and was the Northcentral regional finalist for competition of "other agriculture." A member of his high school varsity bowling team, he said he hopes to go to work for the family business and someday be able to take it over.

Stephanie Rishel

Stephanie Rishel, 17, daughter of Arthur and Barbara Rishel of Vandergrift, is the current vice president of the Lenape FFA Chapter at the Lenape AVTS, having served as its junior vice president during the past year. She is a member of the Pioneer Festival, and Home and Garden committees, and her project work is with beef production. She said she has received All-American scholar and national science merit awards, and earned her Chapter Farmer degree. She said she intends to pursue dairy animal science studies at Penn State University.

Britina Robinson

Britina Robinson, 17, daughter of Boyd and Jean Robinson of Drumore, is the second vice president of the Solanco FFA Chapter, having served as its president and secretary, respectively, over the past years. The four-year member is a member of the chapter's Executive, Recruitment and Leadership committees. Her projects include off-farm work and raising dairy calves, and she has won awards for public speaking proficiency. She has earned her Greenhand and Chapter degrees and intends to attend Texas A&M University to study agricultural engineering.

Susan Rae Rood

Susan Rae Rood, 17, daughter of Pamela and Donald Rood of Mifflinville, served as vice president of the Columbia/Montour FFA Chapter during the past year and has been involved with the chapter's Bulb Sale, Citrus Sale, and Carnation & Rose Sale Committees, as well as working at Dillions, and dinner at Ronald McDonald House. She has received her Greenhand and Chapter degrees, and intend to go to college to pursue horticultural studies.

Daren Roush

Daren Roush, 17, son of Randall and Betty Roush of Mifflinburg, served as chaplain of the Mifflinburg FFA Chapter during the past year, and has served as chairperson of its Points Committee, as well as a member of its Cider, and Supplies committees. His projects include on-farm work experience, raising grain corn and oats. He has received several awards for his FFA involvements including Star Chapter Agribusinessman, the Northeastern Farm Credit County Record Keeping award, a scholarship, various SAE awards at the state, area and county levels, was a member of the fourth place 1996 state farm business management team, and the fourth place 1997 state agricultural mechanics team. Daren received his Greenhand, Chapter and SUN Area degrees, and outside of FFA his is a member of the high school varsity bowling team. His goal is to own his own farm, work as a machinist, or first pursue a degree from a two-year machinist school.

Chad Robbins

Chad Robbins, 17, son of Dave and Pam Robbins of Bloomsburg, has served as vice president of the Central Columbia FFA Chapter for the past two years, and as its chaplain during the 1994-95 term. He is a member of the chapter's Milking booth, Ag in the Classroom, and Recruitment committees. His projects include work with excavation and masonry. He has won a scholarship pin and a Star Greenhand award, as well as his Greenhand and Chapter degrees. He said he plans to continue his education.

Roxanne Ruhlman

Roxanne Irene Ruhlman, 18, of Gardners, daughter of Patricia Ann Gardner and Jeffery Allen Ruhlman, has been a four-year member of Bermudian FFA Chapter, currently serving as its secretary. She served as parliamentarian for the past year. Her activities include serving on the chapter's Cider, Sandwich and Kansas City committees, and her projects include work with sheep and goat breeding, and work experience at Giant Foods. She has won awards for public speaking and sheep breeding. Roxanne has received her Greenhand, a Star Chapter and a County degree. She said she plans to attend a culinary arts school and pursue a career as a chef. "That way I could better the future of agriculture with different styles of food."

Heather Rupert

Heather Rupert, 17, daughter of Richard and Margaret Rupert of Nescopeck, is a four-year member of the Col-Mont AVTS FFA Chapter, currently serving as its chaplain. A member of the chapter's Carnation Day and Fundraising committees, her projects include work with floral designs, as well as working with Ronald McDonald House dinner.
