nders and is from some place in

QUESTION — Tom Ehrhart, Annville, is looking for information about the art and craft of making hair wreaths.
In particular, he is looking for an individual who can add the present generation of hair into the family's 150-year-old hair wreath. Call him a 1-800-811-6813.

QUESTION — Ada Geissinger, Royersford, will pay for a complete set of Readers' Digest for the years 1954, 1956, and 1960. Write to her at 532 S. Lewis Rd., Royersford, PA 19468.

QUESTION — C.N. Lockenbill, Schuylkill Haven is restoring a New Idea corn husker-shredder. Any information and pictures would be appreciated. Is there a New Idea Restoration Club?

QUESTION — Daniel Yonosh, Slatington, would like to know where to purchase liquid crow repellent that is used to treat seed corn, which deters birds from eating the seed when planted. Does anyone have a homemade formula that works well?

QUESTION — Wayne Urffer wants to setup a network for bartering goods and services. If you are interested, write to him at 12 Gainor Ave., Maple Shade, NJ 08052.

QUESTION — A reader would like to purchase a Red Cleopatha sugar bowl. Call (717) 872-8818.

QUESTION — Charlene Bennett, Clearville, wants to know where to purchase an Epilady and replacement parts for Lady Remington's Smooth and Silky.

ANSWER — Smokey Coover, Dillsburg, wanted to know where to buy Williams: Anti-Pain Ointment, the jar lid reads (Auntie Payne). Thanks to a reader who writes that Golden Pride Products now owns Raleigh and Mcness and sells an Anit-Pain ointment that is very good.

ANSWER — Nancy Mayer, Dalton, is interested in tole painting and asked if there is a book on the subject that readers would recommend, and where can it be purchased. Edward Clark, Frazer, writes that tole painting books are available at craft stores, bookstores, and libraries.

ANSWER — Helen Spencer, Hopewell, N.J., wanted directions for knitting a cable knit sweater vest. She thanks the many people who sent her instructions.

ANSWER — Wilma Johnstone, Christiana, wanted a discontinued flatwear pattern by the name "My Rose," available from Betty Crocker with bonus coupons in the 1960s and made by Oneida. Thanks to John Los, York, who writes that he has a 23 piece set of his mother's that he will sell. Call him evenings or weekends at (717) 741-0274.

ANSWER — Doris Hepner, Shoemakersville, wanted to know where to purchase pure lanolin in a pound jar.
Thanks to a subscriber who writes that it is available from Yesterday's Favorites, 9327 Gap Road, Waynesboro, PA 17268-9265. The company sells organic and natural foods, alternative medicines, supplements, natural pet care products, and personal care items and will send a catalog upon request.

ANSWER — Barbara Sciss, Madison, N.J., wanted directions for making crocheted snowflake dollies. A reader writes that libraries have books on these and the patterns may be copied for a small fee. Also, most craft and fabric shops offer or will organize classes if requested. This is an excellent way to keep the arts alive.

ANSWER — Barbara Schaefer, Bechtelsville, wanted instructions on how to make braided rugs and chair pads from men's ties. Thanks to a reader for writing that it takes a lot of ties to make even a small rug, but that it is worth it because the silky fabrics don't pill easily and are usually treated with a stain repellent. She likes to use them for chair pads. Since ties are always cut on the bias, cut them lengthwise into strips. Some leftover pieces are at the wide end. Continue in the same way that wool rugs are made.

ANSWER — L.M. Hoover, 448 Pleasant Valley Road, wanted to know where to find ribbon for a word processing typewriter Series LXI, Model 161 53514090, 120V AC60HXZ 04A, Listing model AX60 made by Sears Roebuck Co. Thanks to L. Wenger, Lititz, who writes that it is available from J.M. Miley Office Equipment Inc., 2634 Lititz Pike, Lancaster.

Another reader writes that the ribbons can still be purchased at Sears stores.

ANSWER — Alta Martin, Denver, has a wooden butter churn infected with wood-borer worms and wanted to know how to get rid of the worms? Thanks to Sandra Anglemyer, Gilbert, who writes that the holes are from larva that chewed their way out of the wood not into it. She writes that probably there are no worms left in it, but to be sure, soak the churn in a tub of water with a gallon of vinegar or a half box of epsom salts for about one hour at the maximum.

ANSWER — A New Tripoli reader has some extremely dirty quilts with wool batting that she wanted to know how to clean. B. Light writes that she should call Keepsake Quilts 1-800-865-9458, and ask for consumer services. They will give detailed instructions.

A reader from Narvon suggests having them dry cleaned. She did and was pleased with the results.

ANSWER — Rose Diehl, Bloomsburg, wanted to know who sells parts for a Biro butcher band saw model #3334, serial #5335. Thanks to a reader for writing that Biro parts can be purchased from Martin's Sharpening, 502 Glenwood Dr., Ephrata.

ANSWER — Charlene Bennett, Clearville, wanted to know where to find jump rope sayings, which she has forgotten since childhood. Also, where can she purchase a Chinese jump rope? Thanks to Sandra Anglemyer, Gilbert, for writing that both the jump ropes and sayings can be found in a wonderful catalog of wholesome toys called Hearth Song, 6519 N. Galena Rd., P.O. Box 1773, Peoria, IL 61656-1773.

ANSWER — Thanks to Almeda Landis, Lancaster, for answering the request from Grace Stauffer, Port Trevor-ton, who wanted the words to the following song:

*God's keeping the nightwatch for you and for me.
Bright stars are watching the world while it sleeps, Shepherds watch over the little white sheep, The lighthouse is shining for ships far at sea—As God keeps the nightwatch for you and for me.
So sleep, sleep in peace and rest.
Don't be afraid of the darkness, All's well, for over the land and the sea
God's keeping the night Watch for you and for me.
Repeat stanza.*
