er registry award four times and the progressive genetic herd award for seven years. They have marketed bulls and embryos both nationally and internationally. They have put 25 bulls into A.I. with two presently on the top 100 TPI list.

James Houser, Centre County, and Michael Weimer, Clarion/Venango Club, were recognized for outstanding work in membership solicitation. It was noted that Lehigh County has already reached their membership goal for 1998 and will receive a $200 cash award for their efforts.

Sixty-five Pennsylvania breeders were recognized with the progressive genetics herd award. The list is published with this report.

The All-Pennsylvania awards were presented at the breakfast Friday morning. In 1997 some 1,280 head were shown at the major shows with 62 head earning All-Pennsylvania awards. James and
