

Del. County Cooperative Extension To Meet

SPRINGFIELD (Delaware Co.) — Delaware County Cooperative Extension Association has scheduled its annual meeting and dinner, March 31, at Redwood Community Playhouse in Upland.

Entertainment will be Beth Phillips Brown of Media, a poet and storyteller in the Welsh and Celtic tradition. The business meeting will include the election of new members to the board of directors.

Displays and staff will be available to increase your knowledge of Penn State Cooperative Extension programs in Delaware County. The association business meeting and all programs of Penn State Cooperative Extension, Delaware County, are open to all residents.

The business meeting and entertainment are free of charge. Dinner ($15 per person) will be catered by John Familetti and will include vegetarian lasagna, herbed chicken, rice, vegetable stir fry, romaine and spinach salad, rolls, coffee, tea, and dessert. Call (610) 690-2655 for information on reservations. Reservations are needed by March 23.

Beth Phillips Brown, special guest for the evening, will entertain with poems and stories from the strong oral tradition of the Welsh and Celtic peoples. Her performance has been described as "... a wonder-filled presentation ... I was entertained, some were enthralled and others, I could see so clearly, were entranced." She recently performed at the Media Storytelling Festival and the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts AIE Conference.
