Holstein Association Show, Sale

STATE COLLEGE (Centre Co.) — The Pennsylvania Holstein Association's spring activities are set to be held at the Farm Show Building, Harrisburg on March 26-27.

The Showcase Sale is to feature 65 lots of show-age calves, bred heifers and fresh young cows. This is a great opportunity to support your fellow breeders and add some top genetics to your herd. Junior members will have 5 percent taken off the purchase price of the first project animal they purchase.

The Pennsylvania Junior Holstein Association is selling embryos to benefit Junior activities. These embryos have been donated by breeders for the purpose of supporting Junior programs.

The 45th Spring Show will start at 9:30 a.m. in the Farm Show Building on Friday, March 27.

Donald Johnston from Marintown, Canada is to be the judge. Almost 300 head have been entered in the Spring Show. This is an excellent opportunity to see some of the best cattle in the country owned by Pennsylvania Holstein members.
