

Lincoln Ram Is Supreme

veral years ago.

The Bankheads were honored with the Ernest E. Hall memorial trophy, presented each year to the exhibitor of the supreme champion ram. The trophy is a remembrance of Mr. Hall, who donated 16 years of service to the Maryland Sheep and Wool Festival.

Supreme champion ewe honors went to a Corriedale yearling ewe shown by Keith Chamberlin, K and K Corriedales.

"Reality," a 240-pound homebred ewe, impressed judge Clauser with her fleece, type, and femininity. He called her "... a large volume ewe with a beautiful head, nice color and texture to her fleece, a very attractive ewe from her front end on back."

K and K Corriedales is a 30 ewe operation in Ashland, Ohio run by Keith Chamberlin and his sister

Karen Pruner, and her family. According to Chamberlin, "Reality" was the champion ewe at the Kentucky state fair in 1997, and was reserve champion at Keystone.

K and K was honored with the Florence B. Hall memorial trophy, presented each year to the exhibitor of the supreme champion ewe. The award is given in recognition of the 16 years of dedicated service Mrs. Hall gave to the Sheep and Wool festival.

Campaign Promotes Volunterrism

HONESDALE (Wayne Co.) - Local 4-H members and adult volunteers are participating in a nationwide media campaign designed to promote youth community service and volunteerism and to raise awareness of the diverse education opportunities offered by 4-H.

The ads use the slogan "Are You Into It?"™ to encourage youth and adults interested in community service to call a toll-free number (888-77-YOUTH) or visit the campaign's World Wide Web site (www.areyouintoit.com). Callers then will be contacted by a youth 4-H member or adult 4-H leader in Wayne County, who will provide information on volunteer opportunities, as well as on local 4-H clubs and activities. Those interested in community service or 4-H also can call the Wayne County office of the Penn State Cooperative Extension at (717) 253-5970, ext. 239.
