Questions? Whether you're trying to find an exhibitor, a tour, or something to eat, the answers are at the Information Booth. There's information on all Ag Progress Days activities, as well as a lost and found

Visitors Center

Main Street at West 4th Street

Looking for lodging, local restaurants, area attractions, or things to do on Penn State's University Park campus? You'll find information and directions here

Ag Alumni Pavilion

Main Street, between West 11th and West 12th
Alumni can check in, meet old friends, and see alumni-developed exhibits. Free ice water and apples while supplies last!

College of Agricultural Sciences Exhibits Building and Theatre

Main Street, between West 9th and West 10th (near the farmhouse)

Growing Pennsylvania: A Precision Business
Learn how computers coupled with satellites, geographic information systems (GIS), and other advanced technologies can be used to produce bigger and better yields with less expense and pollution — as well as manage all of our natural resources. Learn how GIS helps protect Pennsylvania farmland and how local governments use GIS for 911 emergency management, land-use planning, stormwater and water supply planning, tax assessment, and more. Precision farming demonstrations include a field mapping system that uses an all-terrain vehicle equipped with global positioning systems (GPS), GIS, and soil sampling attachments. Kids can play the "Stake Your Acres" computer game and see how remote sensing works. Penn State faculty and staff will answer questions

Publication Distribution Center Display

Stop by the Publications Distribution Center display and pick up free publications on topics ranging from agriculture and natural resources to community affairs and lawn care. Preview for-sale publications and take home a catalog of all of the College's publications and videos

SciQ

Test your agricultural IQ in this fun event, patterned after TV quiz shows and hosted by local media celebrities. Contestants and audience members alike can win prizes, including SciQ T-shirts and University Creamery ice cream. The game will be played in the College Exhibits Building Theatre daily at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Admission is free, but arrive early for seats

SciQ Junior

Designed for kids between the ages of 8 and 12, this special version of the popular SciQ game will be played daily at 11:00 a.m. and Wednesday at 6:00 p.m.

Storyteller Jan Kinney

Jan Kinney, master storyteller and writer of award-winning short stories, spins her yarns daily at noon in the College Exhibits Building Theatre

Video Programs in the Theatre

Video programs will be shown daily. A schedule of running times and video titles is posted in the College Exhibits Building
