

Time To Reserve Tickets

In addition, two contestants will receive $100 awards for outstanding dairy promotions for school children and two others will receive $100 each for the two best speeches designed for adult audiences. As in the past, there will also be two $50 awards for compiling scrapbooks, which chronicle their dairy princess activities to date. The contestants themselves will select the coveted "Miss Congeniality" award from among their own ranks.

For more than 41 years the primary purpose of the dairy princess program in Pennsylvania is the promotion of the dairy industry and its products on the grass roots level. Incentive awards will again be given to the counties whose last year's princess and her committee completed the incentive requirements.

In addition, an individual award of $300 will be given to the young woman who stood out as the outstanding dairy promoter during her county reign. This award, entitled the "Tina Shultz Memorial Award" is given in memory and honor of the outstanding young lady, who in May 1986 succumbed to cancer, during her reign as Huntingdon County Dairy Princess.

Pennsylvania Dairy Princess and Promotion Services Inc. announces that the Saturday morning presentation competition will be open to the public free of charge. It will run from 8:15 a.m. until noon in the Sheraton Ballroom.

Saturday evening, September 19, promises to be an exciting evening for 29 county contestants and their families as well as the Pennsylvania Dairy industry. Tickets for the event are $20 per person and are available on a "first come" basis from Pennsylvania Dairy Princess and Promotion Services, Inc. 214 South Street, Box 640, Clarion, PA 16214 or call (814) 226-7470. All tickets must be paid in advance and will be held for pick up at the door.
