

You ask You answer

This column is for readers who have questions but don't know who to ask for answers.

"You Ask—You Answer" is for non-cooking questions. When a reader sends in a question, it will be printed in the paper. Readers who know the answer are asked to respond by mailing the answer, which will then be printed in the paper.

Questions and Answers to this column should be addressed to You Ask—You Answer, Lancaster Farming, P.O. Box 609, Ephrata, PA 17522. Attention: Lou Ann Good.

Do not send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for a reply. If we receive the answer, we will publish it as soon as possible. Please include your phone number because we sometimes need to contact the person to clarify details. We will not publish your phone number unless you request it.

QUESTION — As a girl in the 1920s, Lenna Martin's grandmother sang at the Welsh Mountain church. She is now 83 and doesn't remember all the words. Some phrases are "Two little children, a boy and a girl once came to an old church door. 'The little girls' feet were as brown as her curls and hung on the dress that she wore. . . .
