

Ephrata Fair Announces Livestock Sale Prices

EPHRATA (Lancaster Co.) — Results of the Ephrata Fair Champion Livestock shows and sales were announced recently. Following are the champions and the sale prices provided.

Grand champion market hog at Ephrata went to Lisa Pfautz, right. Ephrata National Bank purchased the 264-pound grand champion for $2.55 per pound, represented by Aaron Groff, left and Bob Zook, center. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Reserve champion market hog at Ephrata went to Sarah Boyd, Ephrata. The 266-pound reserve champion was purchased for $1.50 per pound by Hatfield Quality Meats, represented by Tom Moyer. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Reserve champion of the Ephrata Fair Baby Beef Show was shown by Katie Nolt and sold for 1,100 to the Ephrata National Bank. Representing the bank are Bob Zook, center, and Aaron Groff, right. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Ephrata Fair Dairy Show supreme champion went to Jared Zimmerman for Hi Vu Mascot Dandy, left. The Brown Swiss grand champion was shown by Sarah Boyd, represented here by her father, Kerry. From left, Zimmerman; Jamie Horning, Lancaster County dairy princess alternate; and Boyd. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Grand champion market lamb at Ephrata went to Jimmy Zimmerman, right. The 120-pound grand champion went to First Union Bank, represented by Ted Bowers, vice president, for $1.10 per pound. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Baby beef grand champion at Ephrata Fair was shown by Sarah Nolt, center, and sold for $1,200 to Farmers First Bank. Representing the bank were Russell Shirker, Lincoln branch manager, and Andy Terrell, vice president, ag department. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Grand champion market goat at Ephrata went to Sarah Boyd. The goat was purchased by Luke Hibshman of Triple H Construction. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Reserve grand champion market lamb at Ephrata was shown by Jimmy Zimmerman, right. The 128-pound reserve champion sold to Agway, represented by Dave Smith, for $1.05 per pound. Photo by Preston Whitcraft

Holstein Club Sets Meeting

ATGLEN (Chester Co.) — The Chester County Holstein Club has scheduled its annual meeting and banquet on Tuesday, Oct. 20, beginning at 6:45 p.m. at the West Fallowfield Christian School.

The turkey dinner with all the trimmings is priced at $5 for adults and $3 for children ages three through 10 years.

The evening's program will feature the recognition of top 4-H and FFA Holstein youth and outstanding type and production awards for adults and youth. Entertainment will be a special slide presentation covering the club's activities in the past year.

First-year 4-H'ers with Holstein dairy projects will be among the guests that evening, along with the Chester county dairy princess and nine others who make up Chester county's dairy royalty.

Orders for five pound blocks of mild cheddar cheese will be taken that evening.

Make dinner reservations by Saturday, Oct. 10 with any of the following directors: Rod Bare (610) 593-7084, Bob Hewitt (610) 495-7927, or Jane Pepple

(610) 932-3975. When making reservations, please call in BAA information, lifetime records of 200,000 pound cows still producing, and protein records on youth-owned animals.

MILK
Where's your mustache?™