

Horse Judging Concludes At KILE

Appaloosa Show

John and Phyllis Harkins of Forest Hill, Md., took grand champion mare honors with their 2-year-old, "Harks O C Dynamite" in judge Roberta Jean Best's show ring at the 42nd Keystone International Livestock Exposition's Appaloosa Show.

"It's great to win with one that you have bred yourself," said John Harkins. He is deputy chief of police in Belair, Md. In his spare time, he and his wife enjoy showing their 15 head of halter and pleasure horses.

Dennis and Barbara Dixon of Berry, Ky. took reserve grand champion honors with their "Black Iris," a yearling filly in Show B.

Judge Charles L. Schroeder switched the champions, naming "Black Iris" grand champion mare and "Dynamite" reserve champion mare.

Champion stallion in judge Best's show ring A went to Michael and Katah Wachter's yearling colt, "Collectible." The Wachters are from Harrisburg. Reserve champion stallion went to Robert and Judy Harrison of Bordentown, N.J. for their yearling colt, "Isn't It Obvious." The stallion is fourth in the nation in color and is in the top 10 in the nation under the non-pro stallion and yearling stallion categories. When not showing horses, Judy Harrison is a Central Office Technician for Bell Atlantic.

In judge Schroeder's show ring B the Wachters yearling colt, "Collectible" was named reserve champion stallion. Ronald and Rita Cluck's yearling colt, "Poweriffic," was named grand champion.

Top Gelding

Mary Jane Hanson, Leighton, exhibited the champion gelding, "Noldar," in the Arabian open show.

Hanson's winning gelding was also champion gelding at last year's show, which was her first time exhibiting at KILE. Noldar also won the purebred hunter pleasure championship class. The gelding was also named reserve champion at the New Jersey Arabian Horse Breeders Show. Richard Koehler of Bethlehem, is "Noldar's" trainer and rider.

Reserve champion gelding went to Jon and Linnette

Harley, Boyertown, for their "Agadir," last year's East Coast champion gelding. The Arabian was also champion at this year's New Jersey Arabian Horse Breeders Show.

The champion half Arabian gelding went to Brian Fack of Alista B Arabians, Allentown, for his horse, "Dark Alley." The gelding also won the country English pleasure championship.

Reserve champion half Arabian gelding went to Kristine H. Phelps-Carlson of Lancaster, for her "Mohameds Drummer."

Champion purebred stallion was exhibited by Randy Stoneback of Oxford for his "RSA Prophet."

Reserve champion purebred stallion went to Chestnut Hill Arabians of Gilbert for their "Al Maleeke Bashir."

Champion half Arabian mare went to Gary and Dianna Whitt, Fresno, Ohio, for their "E A Summer Fantasy."

Reserve champion half Arabian mare went to Joseph Steubing of Deptford, N.J. for his "Angelique C F."

Champion purebred mare was exhibited by Fred and Sherry Lutz of Oxford. For their "April Nite Magic."

Reserve champion purebred mare was exhibited by Jon and Linnette Harley, Boyertown, for their "Tira Isis."

GOLDEN PRO 46 XP

This natural, mechanically extruded and expelled soybean product is experiencing great acceptance with local dairymen. A course golden colored meal with a 6% fat content, Golden Pro 46 XP is extremely palatable. Golden Pro 46 XP is a natural way to bring the value of high bypass protein into diets that require a lower fat level.

To make these products available, and to help you utilize your home raised soybeans
Keystone Mills announces its

Soybean Exchange Program

As manufacturers and distributors of Golden Pro 46 XP and Golden Meal 40, we are anxious for you to try our products. We are offering a soybean exchange program featuring these quality nutritional products.

CRUDE SOYBEAN OIL

A product of Keystone's expelling process, this oil can be used in a wide variety of on farm applications. A natural alternative to animal fats, this oil provides needed energy in various rations.

GOLDEN MEAL 40

An 18 percent fat content along with a 40 percent crude protein makes this mechanically extruded meal product a valuable component in a variety of rations. Full fat content gives you a high level of digestible energy, while high temperature extruding ruptures the oil cells for better nutritional absorptions.
