

Northeastern Farm Credit Elects Directors

LEWISBURG (Union Co.) — Northeastern Farm Credit stockholders elected directors for a new term.

Following the annual stockholder meetings on Nov. 5, director ballots were mailed out to voting stockholders. On Dec. 2, a Tellers Committee convened at the Lewisburg administrative offices to count the ballots.

Three directors were elected, each for a one-year term beginning Jan. 1 for the AgChoice Farm Credit association, the association formed from the consolidation of Northeastern, Penn West, and York Farm Credit associations, which becomes effective Jan. 1.

Donald G. Cotner Jr., Danville, is completing his 16th year on the board representing the Lewisburg Division comprised of Union and Northumberland counties. He is the president of Cotner Farms, Inc. and a partner in Don Cotner Farms.

Douglas W. Lawton, Wellsboro, is completing his ninth year on the board representing the northern region comprised of Tioga, Elk, Potter, Cameron, and Mc-Kean counties. He owns a dairy and raises grain.

Charles F. Ulmer Jr., Cogan Station is a new director-elect to the board and will be representing the Montoursville Division comprised of Lycoming and Clinton counties. He owns a dairy.

"These men have been elected by their peers to serve the interests of their fellow farmers and the members of not only Northeastern Farm Credit, but AgChoice Farm Credit, as well. They have each demonstrated dedication and leadership in their communities and will serve the board well," commented Allyn L. Lamb, president of Northeastern Farm Credit and the future AgChoice Farm Credit
