

LANCASTER FARMING'S INTERNET HOME PAGE RECEIVES NICE COMMENTS

In recent months Lancaster Farming joined the wide world of agriculture on the Internet with a homepage that has already started to generate nice comments from our viewers and traffic counts of 9,000 plus per month for our advertisers. We have worked hard to keep our down-on-the-farm values in this ultra-modern communication system. The first items we put on line, mailbox markets and public sale registry, still bring a lot of people back again and again each week. Farm News headlines, Glenn Shirk's dairy management course and the archives of the Penn State's Dairy and Animal Science Department's columns that run in the paper, have added to the popularity of the site.

Today, we have the Pennsylvania Corn Contest Winners, Accu Weather reports, a featured recipe from Section B, and the program schedules for such events as the Pennsylvania Young Farmer Convention and the Mid-Atlantic Dairy Conference. Tomorrow, who knows? We'll find other things of interest and educational value as they come and go. And we'll keep updating the weather, recipes and news headlines each week.

In addition, we are pleased to announce that a few advertisers have chosen to place banner ads and display pages on-line with us too. When you visit our site you will want to see the farm equipment, auction, and other ads with products and services that are so much a part of our weekly publications. Of course, you can subscribe to Lancaster Farming by the email hot link, and you can find a short history of our forty-two years.

SO, IF YOU HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO GO ON-LINE AND WANT A GOOD PLACE TO BOOKMARK, RIDE YOUR MOUSE TO OUR CORN CRIB.
