ATTENTION EXCAVATORS

NEW CONCEPT REVEALED

Excavators are discovering a better way to move dirt! You see the Case IH Steiger Quadtrac isn't just for agriculture anymore. More and more Steiger Quadtracs are pulling Reynolds scrapers and pans moving dirt for considerably less. Best of all, the Steiger Quadtrac is exceptional when it comes to working in wet conditions. See for yourself how using a Steiger Quadtrac can generate additional profits for you!

A TRUE STORY
Wilkinson Farms had been using Steiger tractors in agriculture for several years. Thinking that the Steiger would also be effective in construction applications, Wilkinson Farms formed Technivate, a construction company using Reynolds pans and scrapers with a couple of Steiger tractors. The results have been phenomenal. At last count, Technivate operates a fleet of 13 Case IH Steiger tractors moving dirt with Reynolds pans.
