

ATTENTION EXCAVATORS NEW CONCEPT REVEALED

Excavators are discovering a better way to move dirt! You see, the Case IH Steiger Quadtrac isn't just for agriculture anymore. More and more Steiger Quadtracs are pulling Reynolds scrapers and pans . . . moving dirt for considerably less. Best of all, the Steiger Quadtrac is exceptional when it comes to working in wet conditions. See for yourself how using a Steiger Quadtrac can generate additional profits for you!

A TRUE STORY

Wilkinson Farms had been using Steiger tractors in agriculture for several years. Thinking that the Steiger would also be effective in construction applications, Wilkinson Farms formed Technivate, a construction company using Reynolds pans and scrapers with a couple of Steiger tractors. The results have been phenomenal. At last count, Technivate operates a fleet of 13 Case IH Steiger tractors moving dirt with Reynolds pans.
