LEWISTOWN (Mifflin Co.) - The Mifflin County junior leaders received a Milton W. Delancy Award from the Association of Township Supervisors Saturday, Oct. 2, during the leader recognition banquet at the Maitland Church of the Brethren.

Former Junior Leaders adviser Alan Laughlin presented the plaque to the group for their suitcase drive held last year. The Association of Township Supervisors offers the award to groups for outstanding community projects.

"Only five awards were given in Pennsylvania," said Laughlin, holding up a plaque. "The Junior Leaders also received $100."

The Junior Leaders presented the Friend of 4-H Award to Doug and Becky Bowersox, McClure. The Bowersox family helped the junior leaders manage the food stand this year during the Mifflin County Youth Fair. They spent one week of their vacation time literally camping out at the fair.

"The Junior Leaders are a fun batch of kids," Becky Bowersox said after she and her husband, Doug, received the Friend of 4-H Award. The annual award goes to anyone who has helped the 4-H program but isn't a leader.

"We were surprised to get the award," said Doug. He and his wife run a food stand for many of Steven's auctioneering sales. They help plan meals for the Decatur Fire Company and for their Maitland Church of the
