

Milk Drinkers Make Better Holiday Drivers

HATFIELD (Chester Co.) — Soon, it will be time to party like it's 1999. To the majority of the world the new millennium will begin promptly at midnight 2000. Purists insist it is a 2001 celebration. Either way celebrations will abound.

Sadly, the more merry-making, the more alcohol-related tragedies will occur. According to the American Automobile Association, every 30 minutes someone in America dies because of an impaired driver. Every two minutes someone is injured.

Rosenberger's Dairies, set to celebrate its 75th anniversary in 2000, suggests alcohol-free alternatives this New Year's eve. The company recommends milk-based party drinks, non-alcohol eggnog or iced tea. A delicious toast-tempting libation combines favorite ingredients guaranteed to please New Year celebrants:

Chocolate Cappuccino Chill I (blender required)

Cubed ice
4 ounces chocolate syrup
8 ounces half-and-half
6 ounces espresso
Fill blender 3/4 full with ice.

Add remaining ingredients. Blend until frothy. Pour into glass mugs. Garnish with whipped cream and chocolate shavings. Serves 4.

Chocolate Cappuccino Chill II (only spoon required)

Cubed ice
10 ounces cold coffee
4 ounces chocolate syrup
8 ounces whole milk
Fill glasses 3/4 full with ice. Distribute chocolate, milk, and coffee equally among glasses. Stir vigorously with spoon. Serves 4.

Rosenberger's Dairies now has its own blend of coffee

Rosenberger's Dairies is one of the oldest independent family-owned dairies in the Delaware Valley. It has 280 employees in five locations: Hatfield, East Greenville, West Chester, Levittown and Easton. It serves home delivery customers and stores in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. Corporate headquarters are located in Hatfield, just a few miles from the founding family's dairy farm, the original site of the company when it was established in 1925.
