

Kids are safer in Lancaster County because of this dedicated group that heads Safe Kids. From left are Brian Klugh, Bureau of Fire, presenting an award to Shari Keyser Groff for her work as director, Dr. Albert Price, pediatrician, and Eileen. Safe Kids will hold a workshop Feb. 10, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. to help parents determine age appropriateness for farm tasks and what needs to be done to increase chances loved ones will survive farm accidents. Marilyn Adams, who founded National Farm Safety 4 Kids after her 11-year-old son suffocated in the grain bin on the family farm, will be the keynote speaker. To register or for more information, call Safe Kids at (717) 390-3801.
