BUCKS CONSERVATION DISTRICT MANAGER POSITION OPENING

The Bucks Conservation District is seeking applications for the position of District Manager, a full time position with benefits. The District Manager is responsible for administering the Bucks Conservation District, which includes supervision and direction of staff, developing public information education programs, grant writing, budget and fiscal management and interaction with other agencies. Although the position is managerial, a background in agriculture, urban conservation practices and issues related to development is necessary. A Bachelor's Degree plus at least ten (10) years of experience in an environmental or related field is required. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications, but there are budgetary limitations on the amount of salary. Any applicant should state their salary expectations either in the application or as part of the communication to the District referencing an interest in the position.

An employment application can be obtained at the Bucks Conservation District office (215-345-7577) and only those persons filing an application will be considered. The application should be sent to:

Leonard Crooke, Chairman
Bucks Conservation District
924 Town Center
New Britain, PA 18901

All applications should be received no later than February 18, 2000. The Bucks Conservation District is an equal opportunity employer.

Millions of unwanted dogs are destroyed in shelters each year. Millions more are abandoned to suffer starvation, illness or injury before finally dying.

Responsible dog breeders breed for health, temperament and to improve the breed; they rarely make a profit.

Be responsible for what you buy and what you breed
