NATIONAL EGG MARKET - AT A GLANCE

Prices were occasionally unchanged to sharply higher throughout the country. The market tone was mostly firm. Retail demand ranged fair to good at times, and was best for the scattered feature activity. Anticipated movement through export channels remained the focus of most dealer interest. Supplies of all sizes continued adequate to closely balanced. Breaking stock supplies were about adequate from regular sources, and demand for additional product was generally no better than moderate. Light type fowl were fully sufficient for current slaughter requirements.
