

Students Awarded $8,000 In Scholarships

TUNKHANNOCK (Bradford Co.) - Emily Bryant, Honesdale, received the Lew Campbell $2,000 Memorial Scholarship award at the annual meeting of Sire Power, last month. Emily, a fourth year food science student at Penn State University, expects to graduate in May, and she plans a career in quality assurance or product development in dairy processing.

During her undergraduate studies at Penn State, Emily served as the vice president of the Food Science Club. In addition, she was involved in the Coaly Society, the food product development team, the Institute of Food Technologists, and in intramural activities. Her parents are William and Debra Bryant.

The Campbell award is given to a deserving student each year in honor of the former Sire Power general manager. Kirk Sattazahn, director of marketing, membership area, said Sire Power board members and the membership are committed each year to support future agricultural leaders in the awarding of these scholarships.

"We cannot emphasize enough the outstanding quality of the young people who apply," Sattazahn said. "This quality seems to increase each year.

A total of $8,000 in scholarships were awarded to 13 students during the meeting. In addition to the Campbell award, the students received $500 scholarships are:
