

You ask You answer

This column is for readers who have questions but don't know who to ask for answers.

"You Ask—You Answer" is for non-cooking questions. When a reader sends in a question, it will be printed in the paper. Readers who know the answer are asked to respond by mailing the answer, which will then be printed in the paper.

Questions and Answers to this column should be addressed to You Ask—You Answer, Lancaster Farming, P.O. Box 609, Ephrata, PA 17522. Attention: Lou Ann Good.

Or, you may e-mail questions and answers to lgood.eph@lnpnews.com

Please clarify what question you are answering when responding.

Do not send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for a reply. If we receive the answer, we will publish it as soon as possible. Please include your phone number because we sometimes need to contact the person to clarify details. We will not publish your phone number unless you request it.

the Signature FFA of Success

Hans Herr Chapter

Four members of Lancaster Mennonite High School's Hans Herr FFA Chapter attended the State Legislative Leadership Conference in the Grantville, Harrisburg, and Hershey areas in March. The conference trained students in how the state government works.

Students who participated included James Eby, son of Dennis and Ellen Eby in Gap; Paul Hostetter, son of James and Mary Louise Hostetter in Holtwood; Chad Hurst, son of George and Mary Hurst in Lititz; and Jeremy Ranck, son of James and Joan Ranck from Christiana.

Conference highlights included a legislative breakfast, where FFA members spent time socializing with senators and representatives. FFA members also had a chance to participate in a legislative simulation and learn more about the legislative process through workshops and hands-on activities. They also toured Milton Hershey High School, the Hershey Zoo, Hershey Chocolate Factory, and the historic state capitol.

Penn Manor FFA Chapter

10 Manor FFA students received their Lancaster County Red Rose Degree on March 2. Those members were Kevin Hoover, Amanda Gehr, Andrew Railing, Garrett Neff, Andy Smith, Ken Greider, Jolene Whirt, Kimberly Ebersole, Duane Stoner, and Josh Murray.

From those members who received the Red Rose Degree, two students from each school are interviewed by a panel of judges who select the County Stars in the areas of Ag Business and Ag Production. This year both stars were members of the Manor FFA. Duane Stoner was the Star Agribusiness Person, and Garrett Neff was the Star in Agriculture Production.

The Manor FFA Dairy Foods Team competed in the Lancaster County Dairy Foods Contest on March 23.

The team, made up of Brian Kiefer, Korte Shearer, Charles Clark, Bill Bresch, Andrew Herr, Adam Marzean, Mike Ross, Tom Appel, and Tyler Rohrer, placed first in the county. Four of the Manor FFA contestants also will compete in the state contest at Penn State in June.

The two high placing Manor individuals were Mike Ross and Adam Marzean. Mike was the second place individual, and Adams was the fourth place individual.

Danville FFA Chapter

The Danville FFA Chapter held its annual banquet on March 23 at the Montour-Delong Fairgrounds. 135 members and parents attended the meeting.

Newly-elected officers were installed during the banquet. 2000-2001 officers include Alicia Wolfe, president; Amanda Brown, vice president; Rebecca Cope, secretary; Rebecca Fritz, treasurer; Jamie Wemple, sentinel; Melissa Wolfe, reporter; Josh Jones, chaplain. Three junior officers were also installed, including Amy Welliver, junior secretary; Brian Fritz, junior reporter; and Michael Woodruff, junior treasurer.

This year's annual banquet featured Pennsylvania Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Russell Redding as the keynote speaker.

The Deputy Secretary spoke about the changing trends in agriculture and the importance of the future youth involvement in agriculture.

The evening also included awards presentations. The Greenhand degree was awarded to the following members: Gretchen Brady, Kelly Craven,
