

Congratulations To The 2000 Dairy Of Distinction Winners

Lancaster County

John & Donna Coleman

This 175-acre farm is home to John and Donna Coleman of Ronks and their five children. John has farmed with his family all his life. However, the Colemans moved to the farm, called Cherry Crest Farm, 13 years ago. In addition to milking 65 cows, they also grow broilers for Tysons Chicken. The Colemans are most proud of the setting of their farm. They like the way it is situated off the road.

Congratulations to all Dairy of Distinction Winners
