Susquehanna County

Ronald & Marcine Carpenetti

Peaceful Acres Dairy in Nicholson is owned by Ronald and Marcine Carpenetti. The 207-acre farm has been in the family for 55 years. Ronald and Marcine took over ownership 32 years ago. Today they milk 50 cows with 35 replacement heifers. One thing unique about the Carpenetti's farm is that Ronald was born in the farmhouse on the farm. The farm has received a lot of publicity lately due to the construction of a greenhouse barn. The first of its kind in the area, the greenhouse barn is used to house dry cows and heifers. Although they do have some new barns, all of the original barns and out buildings still remain on the farm, giving it historic appeal.
