

Supreme Champion Sheep Named At York

EVERETT NEWSWANGER
Editor

YORK - The supreme champion ram and ewe in the meat breeds were selected Monday night at the York Fair.

The supreme champion ram was the champion Southdown shown by Bruce and Barry Snyder from Kutztown. And the supreme champion ewe was a Cheviot shown by Melissa Trostle, Red Lion.

The wool breeds were shown on Sunday with a Corriedale given both supreme champion honors. Ruth Hartman, Limekiln, had the supreme champion ram and Barry and Bruce Snyder had the supreme champion ewe.

John Conaway, Newville, was the judge.

The breed champions are as follows.
