EBENSBURG (Cambria County) — Andy Myers, 16, Ragers Corner, may have his sights set on becoming a civil engineer, but for the present, he is elated to have the grand champion steer at the Cambria County Fair.

The 1,300-pound Angus crossbred was also the county bred champion.

Despite its being the fourth consecutive year for a Myers steer to claim the honors, Myers said, "This is great. We had a lot of competitive steers."

The Wilderness Hollow 4-H'er and junior at Forest Hills High School says raising capons is the primary family business. His parents are Mark and Diane Myers. He is the eldest of three children.

Kelly Myers — no relation to Andy — had the reserve champion steer, a 1,272-pound Angus crossbred. Kelly, 12, attends seventh grade at Forest Hills and
