Farm Women 20

Lancaster Farm Women Society 20 enjoyed a picnic lunch on the lawn of Anna Mary Groff with Freda Wimer as co-hostess.

President Valarie Ferguson opened the business meeting. Anna Mary read Psalm 8 and a reading about how times have changed through the years. To be remembered in prayer are Emily Gallimore, Helen Harnish, and Carl Eckman.

The president reported a county meeting and project for Arbor Place and the state project to help feed the hungry. Treasurer Vera Herr gave a report.

Members enjoyed the gift game in which everyone received a gift. Some members went swimming and others socialized during the evening.

Berks Society 1

Berks County Society 1 of Farm Women held a doggie roast in the home of Ellen Snyder, who read "A Long Evening." Twenty-five people including spouses attended.

Berks County President Betsy Sattazahn surprised members by presenting a citation from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for the society's 60th anniversary. The citation was for participation in all Farm Women activities such as Berks Heim, fire companies, 4-H, flood relief, tornado recovery, and other charitable organizations. Members were surprised and very appreciative of the citation. Rep. Dennis Leh presented the citation to Betsy Sattazahn.

The next meeting will be at the home of Ruth Walters. The Farm Women picnic will be at Levensgood Grove.

The August meeting was held at the home of Ruth Walters. The program for the evening was presented by Tywonn Hetrick, who visited Tahiti as a missionary from a church in Florida. They distributed food and clothing and held church services.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Betty Wegman.

Berks Society 6

Berks Society 6 of Farm Women met at the home of Linda Youse. Seven women attended the covered dish supper. The dairy month theme included a program by the alternate dairy princess who presented interesting facts on the industry.

Volunteers were asked to help at the Heim Fest, Sept. 9. Donations of paper products, canned goods, and non-perishables are requested for the program Feed the Hungry in the Millennium.

The next meeting will be at the home of Pearl Hoffman at 7:45 p.m. Guest speaker is Faye Strickler.

Lancaster Society 18

Lancaster Farm Women Society 18 met Aug. 19 at the home of Ruth Rohrer, East Petersburg.

After a delicious dessert, Dorothy Brubaker led devotions. Roll call was answered by 18 members with only one member missing. Each member expressed a desired change either personal, national, political, local, etc.

President Ruth Landis presided at the business meeting and the program was chosen with the needs of senior citizens in mind. Elizabeth Hollenbach from the campus gave an illustrated talk to help the needs of many unable to function without constant help. She gave many tips on making daily activities safer. Some people need only little changes to home interiors and others require quite a bit of change. Each member received a catalog with countless items to help perform a day in the life of an individual dependent needing constant aid.

After seeing Ruth Rohrer receive her heart pin showing her addition to the growing number of reaching 80 years, members sang the theme song, "Brighten the Corner." Members enjoyed Ruth's artistic display of momentos.

Lancaster Society 18

Lancaster Farm Women Society 18 will hold its next meeting at the home of Ruth Rohrer, East Petersburg.

Devotions will be conducted by Dorothy Brubaker. The program will have Elizabeth Hollenbach speaking about occupational therapy.

The monthly reminder tip for living: "We stumble over pebbles, not mountains."
