

Angus Show Results From Around The Region

Brandston 9FB3 Hawk claimed grand champion bull honors. March 2000 bull calf sired by Rito 9FB3 of 5H11 Fullback first won junior bull calf champion. Jodi Carpenter, Mount Airy, Md., owns the winning entry.

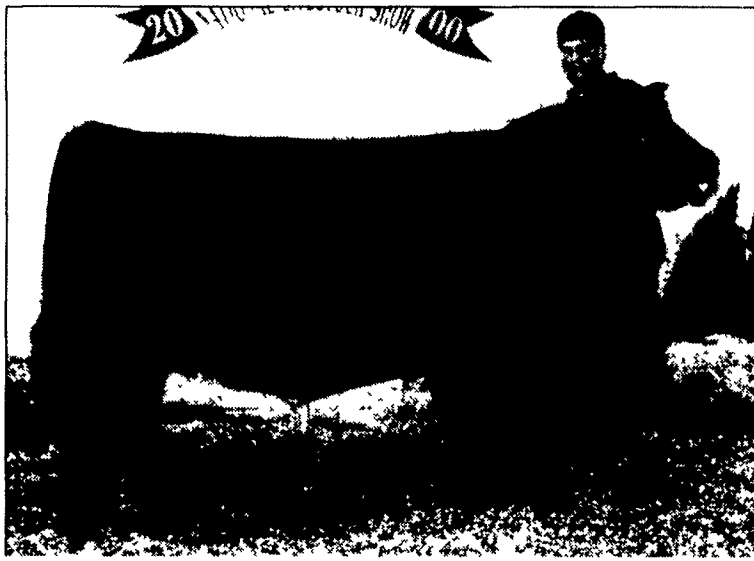

S R S Lucys Quality 8110 claimed the reserve grand champion female title at the 2000 Tennessee State Fair Angus Show, Sept. 10 in Nashville, Tenn. Sonya Smith, Lebanon Tenn., and Clark Farms, Hustontown, Pa., own the February 2000 daughter of V D A R Lucys Boy that first won junior heifer calf champion. Bruce Klesewetter, Maquon, Ill., evaluated the 61 entries.

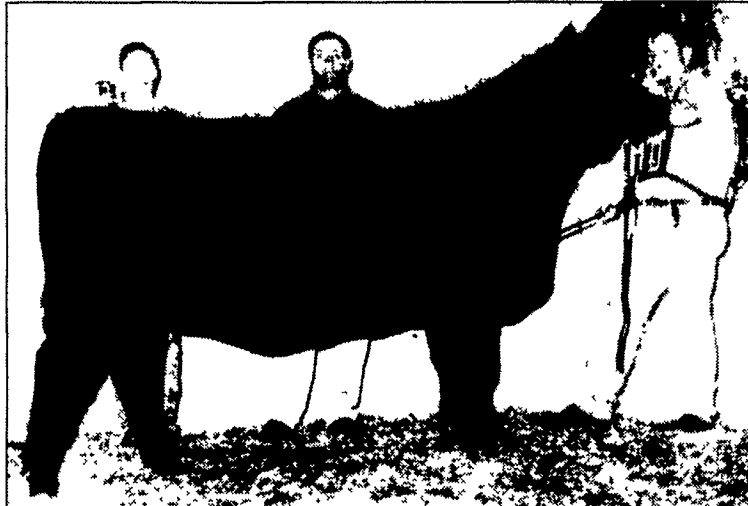

Mandy Richardson, Louisa, Va., led Champion Hill Georgina 1693 to grand champion female honors at the 2000 Eastern National Livestock Angus Show, Sept. 23 in Timonium, Md. The July 1999 daughter of Leachman Saughatchee 3000C first topped the intermediate division. Tim Loudon, Creston, Iowa, evaluated the 77 entries.

Austin Mort, Ghent, N.Y., showed the grand champion cow-calf pair. Fairfield Lady Rachel 809 is a January 1998 daughter of Sitz Traveler 8180. An April 2000 daughter of Sitz Traveler 043 is at side.

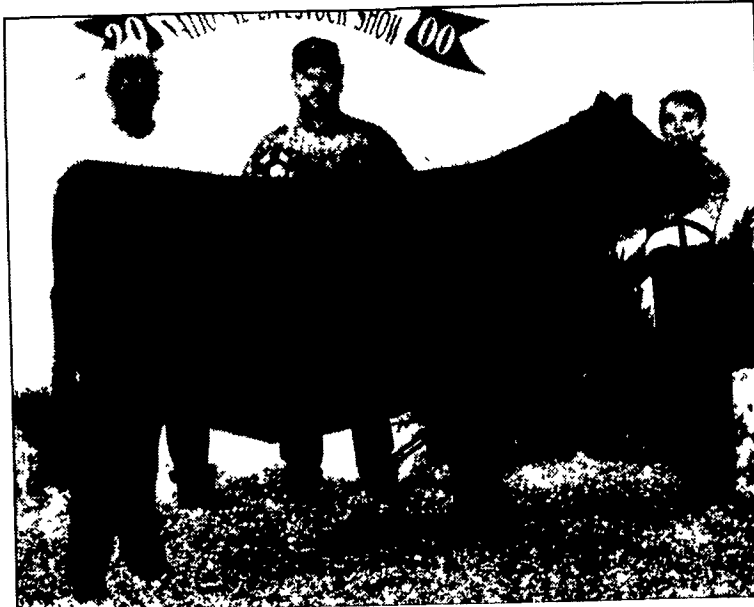

Mark Butler Jr., Emmitsburg, Md., led the grand champion steer at the 2000 Eastern National Livestock Junior Angus Show, Sept. 24 in Timonium, Md. Champion Hill Travlin Boy is a May 1999 son of G D A R Traveler 044. Jim Gillooly, Washington, Ind., judged the 60 entries.

Justin Conover, Caryville, N.Y., led Sir Wms Jestress 809D to grand champion female at the 2000 New York State Fair Junior Angus Show, Aug. 29 in Syracuse, N.Y. The September 1998 daughter of Leachman Explorer first topped the senior division.

Fairfield Lady Rachel 809 claimed grand champion cow-calf pair honors at the 2000 New York State Fair Junior Angus Show, Aug. 29 in Syracuse, N.Y. Austin Mort, Ghent, N.Y., owns the January 1998 daughter of Sitz Traveler 8180. An April 2000 daughter of Sitz Traveler 043 completes the winning pair. Robert Groom, Lyons, N.Y., judged the 27 head of Angus.

Champion Hill Georgina 1693 claimed grand champion female honors at the 2000 Eastern National Livestock Junior Angus Show, Sept. 24 in Timonium, Md. Mandy Richardson, Louisa, Va., owns the July 1999 daughter of Leachman Saughatchee 3000C that first won intermediate champion heifer.

Pa. State 4-H Horse Show Winners

UNIVERSITY PARK (Centre Co.) — The 41st Annual Pennsylvania State 4-H Horse Show was conducted Oct. 27-29 at the Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg.

4-H members from 62 counties participated in this year's show.

A total of 982 youth and 1,044 horses competed in 43 performance and 63 production classes after qualifying at local and district shows.

Events included halter, showmanship, equitation, pleasure, jumping, driving, reining, western riding, timed events and a therapeutic riding division for riders with disabilities.

Twenty-four youth took part in the second Annual Pennsylvania State 4-H Model Horse Show, which gives 4-H members the chance to learn and perfect the hobby of collecting and showing model horses. The model horse program is ideal for members who may not be able to own and show live horses.

Highlights were the recognition ceremony, including presentation of the 2000 Pennsylvania 4-H Horse Program Outstanding Member awards, the Equine Educational Exhibit awards, and the Good Housekeeping Award. Other activities included educational and commercial exhibits, and a dance for exhibitors and 4-H members.

Julia Polka of Westmoreland County received the 4-H Horse Program Outstanding Member Award, which recognizes leadership ability, project work, and participation in local, county, district, and state activities. She received a saddle donated by Smucker's Harness Shop of Narvon.

Four finalists received halters and leads donated by Wengers Saddlery of York Springs. The finalists were Jaclyn Belczyk of Eric County, Tabitha Eimerbrink of York County, Arlea May of Warren County, and Kate Semmens of Montgomery County.

For the eighth year, county 4-H clubs displayed their horsemanship knowledge through equine educational exhibits. The 29 exhibits were judged on educational content and equine facts. York County was named grand champion. A trophy donated by Hoy's Trophies and Awards of Export will reside in the county for one year. Blair County was named reserve champion. Wyoming County earned third place.

Blair County was named Good Housekeeping grand champion. A trophy, also donated by Hoy's Trophies and Awards, will reside in the county for one year. Berks County was named reserve champion. Fayette County earned third place.

Bob Calvert, Penn State cooperative extension agent in Mercer County for 34 years, and Patty Kelly, volunteer leader in Westmoreland County for 27 years, received service awards.

More than 7,000 youth are enrolled in 4-H horse projects in Pennsylvania.