Travel The United States

The weather may be colder, but that doesn't mean you can't visit sites near you or start planning a vacation for when it's warmer

Stratford Hall Plantation, Stratford, Virginia
Visit the plantation and mansion where Robert E. Lee was born. Along with the beautiful setting above the Potomac River, you can see the plantation's mill, main house, stables, gardens and more.

The plantation, which is still managed as a farm today, is open 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. For more information, call (804) 493-8038 or visit the plantation's Web site http://www.stratfordhall.org/frame1\_3.htm

Hoover Dam, Boulder City, Nevada
More than 1 million people tour the Hoover Dam every year. This National Historic Landmark was built during the 1930s to tame the Colorado River and it is the highest dam ever built.

Located on the Nevada-Arizona border, the Visitor Center is open from 8 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. every day except Thanksgiving and Christmas. For more information on the dam, its history and tours, call (702) 294-3523 or visit the Web site <http://www.hooverdam.com/service/index.html>

Grand Village of the Natchez Indians, Natchez, Mississippi
From 700 to 1730, the Natchez Indians lived in what is now the southwestern part of Mississippi. The Natchez were forced to leave by the French who settled in the area. Today, there are a museum, a Natchez home and three ceremonial mounds to visit.

The village is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Saturday and 1:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Call (601) 446-6502 for more information or visit the Mississippi Department of Archives & History Web site <http://www.mdah.state.ms.us/hprop/gvni.html>

Theodore Roosevelt National Park, Medora, North Dakota
Named in honor of President Roosevelt, the park is located in the southwestern part of the "badlands" of North Dakota. You may camp, picnic, drive or hike throughout the park, or you can visit the site where Roosevelt's Elkhorn Ranch was. The park is home to all kinds of wildlife—bison, wild horses, coyotes, bobcats, beavers, eagles and rattlesnakes.

More information on the park is available by calling (701) 623-4466 (South Unit) or (701) 842-2333 (North Unit). The park's Web site has all kinds of information on events, camping and more. <http://www.nps.gov/thro/home.htm>

Inventure Place, Akron, Ohio
Along with being the National Inventors Hall of Fame, Inventure Place is a laboratory where you can explore your ideas. Exhibits allow you to be a scientist, artist, inventor, explorer, musician or filmmaker.

Inventure Place is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday to Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. It is closed Mondays, along with New Year's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas. For more information call (330) 762-4463 or visit the Web site. <http://www.invent.org/visit.html>
