BEEF TIPS

Simmental Donor Cows
 In December, a 3-year-old donor cow named Josie from Gramm Farms in Minnesota sold for $30,000 to Lucas Cattle Company of Indiana and Missouri. The progeny from this previously unknown cow's first flush brought over $50,000 to the owner.
 A bull calf and a heifer calf (part of that first flush) from this cow came to McClure Mills Farms, Shirleysburg, Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania and Maryland breeders are known for acquiring the best Simmental genetics available in the country.
