21st Century Commission Offers Recommendations To Congress

The House Agriculture Committee began its farm bill hearings with testimony from the Commission on 21st Century Production Agriculture Jan. 31.

Created by the Federal Agricultural Improvement and Reform (FAIR) Act of 1996, the commission is charged with the measurement of mid-term impact on production flexibility, economic risk by farm size and region, food security, farmland values, producer income, a documentation of regulatory relief, tax relief and trade policies.

In testimony before Congress, the Commission recommended a continuation of the fixed AMTA payments, the adoption of an additional counter-cyclical income support program, and retaining the current marketing assistance loan program (LDPs and MLGs).
