

Lebanon County 4-H Livestock Club Holds Recognition Banquet

NORTH CORNWALL (Lebanon Co.) — The Lebanon County 4-H Livestock Club recently held its annual recognition banquet. Among the honored guests were buyers from the livestock sales and senior members.

The banquet was led by master of ceremonies, Justin Fuls, a member of the beef and swine clubs. Other participating members included Heather Emrich, Andrew Blatt, Travis Adam, Emily Wenger, and Holly Meyer.

All of the livestock leaders were honored, as well as the buyers from the Lebanon Area Fair, the Winter Roundup and the Pennsylvania Farm Show. The buyers are invited to the annual banquet and presented with a gift.

The leaders of the three livestock clubs recognized the winners from the past year. For the hog club, Brenda Crouse and Dan Seaman presented roundup trophies to roundup champion Janine Winebark, reserve champion Brandon Winebark, as well as showmanship trophies to the two Winebarks plus Hannah Artz. Brandon Winebark was also recognized for showing the grand champion market hog at the 2001 Pennsylvania Farm Show.

Brian Kreider, beef club leader, also recognized the winners from his club. Kreider also coaches the livestock judging team.

The highlight of the year was their win at the Cattail Classic in Maryland. Competing against teams from various states, they easily won every category in this contest.

Debbie Tice of the sheep club recognized the many participants from the past year. The roundup champion Joseph Tice and reserve champion Susan Leed also received their trophies. She also thanked fellow leaders Tim Fleener, Wilmer Wenger, Daryl and Michelle Grumbine, and Julie Willard for their assistance.

Members who are seniors in high school were recognized. The seniors were Justin Fuls, Travis Adam, Andrew Blatt, Heather Emrich, Emily Wenger, Holly Meyer, and Nathan Spatz.

Extension agent Galen Kopp recognized the outstanding members. The members apply for this award, listing their accomplishments for the past year. Unfortunately, there were no applicants for the rookie award, and Kopp encouraged everyone to apply next year. The outstanding junior member was awarded to Emily Whitmoyer. Emily is a member of the beef club, as well as North Mountain Club, and shows both breeding animals and steers. She also participated in many school and church activities as well.

The outstanding senior member was awarded to Nathan Tice. Nathan is a member of the beef, sheep and swine clubs as well as the livestock judging team. He was reserve champion beef blocker and beef showman at the Lebanon Area Fair, as well as showing the champion Shorthorn steer at the Pennsylvania Farm Show. He also participates in the Northern Lebanon FFA Chapter.

In the closing comments of the evening, several people were recognized. The Ken Winebark family is leaving for mission work in late March. Ken is a former extension agent, and this past year was organization leader for the Swine Club. His wife Janet, and children Janine and Brandon will all be part of the mission trip, which will take them first to Texas.

Also mentioned was former county extension director Alletta Schadler. She and her husband Bill are currently living close to Johns Hopkins Medical Center in Baltimore after she donated a kidney to her husband, who had been on dialysis for several years.

Finally, former organization leader of the Swine Club, Judy Atkins was honored for her 15 plus years of service. Although she stepped down from that role about a year ago, she has continued to do the computer work of entering classes for the fair. Judy has seen many 4-H'ers through the program, including some who are now leaders, such as Brian Kreider, John Risser and Daryl Grumbine.

Seniors honored at the banquet were Andrew Blatt, Travis Adam, Justin Fuls, Heather Emrich, Holly Meyer, and Emily Wenger.

Do You Suffer From Fibromyalgia?

When I was introduced to New Image I was 50 pounds over weight and suffered from fibromyalgia I was so depressed and in pain the majority of the time. I was taking steroids and four other medications, one of which made me so 'groggy' I could hardly get out of bed and another gave me ulcers. I began taking New Image secretly because I thought my family would make fun of me. After a month, I discovered I had lost eight pounds and seven inches. Wow! Then it dawned on me, I was feeling better, the depression and pain were gone. In two months I was off all medications. "I feel SUPERIFIC!" Now, two years later I have lost 43 pounds and 30 inches. Thank you New Image for giving me a new life again.
