

GARDEN STATE PARK

THE AUCTION OF THE 21ST CENTURY!

Friday, June 22 thru Tuesday, June 26, 2001

A complete liquidation of America's oldest derby and newest racetrack will be held on-site at a 5 day Public Auction! A multi-million dollar world class equestrian art work collection featuring 19th century British and American artists will be sold to the highest bidders.

Garden State Park memorabilia, advertisements and collectibles will go on the auction block. Some features include an 1800's jockey scale, the renowned "Phoenix" woodcarved sculpture and (2) over life sized bronzed racehorse statues (1 set of three in the world). From the track maintenance equipment, vehicles and tractors to the state of the art restaurant, banquet facilities and video equipment—this auction is sure to have something for everyone!

Attention track owners... every component of the race track and its buildings and facilities will be sold including Horse Barns, track rails, lighting, tote boards and more!

You've read history, you've seen history, now you can own a part of America's finest horse racing history!
