Penn Wood Farms

The extended Stoltzfus family keeps Pennwood Farms thriving as they tend a milking herd of about 400 Holsteins and 60 Jerseys and grow about 800 acres of corn and hay.

A partnership of parents Harvey and Mary Jane, with sons Don, Glen, Duane, and Dwight along with wives Joanne, Gail,

Andrea, and Melanie get the crops in and the milk in the tank, while keeping the farmstead in ship-shape condition.

Duane said that women are "very much involved" in the farming operation and maintenance of the property.
