

Lebanon County Weaverline Holsteins

Jay and Miriam Weaver and family milk about 100 Holsteins on this scenic dairy near Myerstown in Lebanon County. Along with three hired men, the Weavers manage the herd and farm about 260 acres to provide most of the forages for the cows.

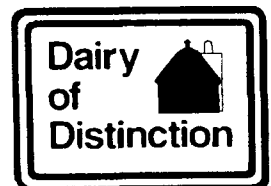

Jay's father originally owned the farm and Jay began milking there before he was married.

Children Randall, 13, and Sheila, 11, pitch in with the farm work and help to keep the grounds tidy and trim. About two months ago, a new son, Jeremy, was born into the Weaver family. He hasn't joined the working crew yet.

Congratulations
