LEBANON (Lebanon Co.) — About 240 dairy animals were on display for the combined 4-H and FFA Holstein and open colored breed dairy shows here this Tuesday.

Bradley Hoover's 5-year-old Holstein Brook-Corner Newsmaker Myra made news indeed when she took grand champion Holstein, then went on to win supreme champion dairy animal at the show, earning the Dale Maulfair Jr. Memorial Trophy.

Hoover has been around Holsteins his whole life, on the farm of his parents Reid and Diane Hoover. A 4-H member, he has been showing dairy animals since he was about eight years old.

Hoover will be a senior at Annville-Cleona High School this fall.

4-H Junior grand champion Holstein went to a fall heifer calf owned and exhibited by Nathan Beiler. A student at Lebanon Christian Academy, Beiler, 12, has been participating in dairy shows for about four years.

Colored breed grand champions went to Dale Maulfair, Ayrshire; David Sattazahn, Brown Swiss; Joel Smith, Guernsey; and Andrew Dice, Jersey. The Holstein show was judged by Dennis Patrick, while Paul Moyer made the calls for the colored breeds.
