Wayne 4-H Honors Senior Members

Wayne County 4-H Program has honored two young adults who have paved an impressive path throughout their 4-H years as members of our clubs.

One Outstanding Wayne County

Senior 4-H Member is Gwen Courtright. Gwen is an eight-year member of the Explorers 4-H Club in Hamlin. She has completed many 4-H projects and has excelled in and out of the show ring. Her completed project books having been awarded top honors over the years include swine, ceramics, dairy, market lamb, maple syrup and woodworking. She has been the club treasurer, news reporter, refreshment and game chairperson, as well as being involved in the fair display, budget, field trip, T-shirt and program committees. She is the daughter of Dawn and Lew Courtright, Hamlin.

The second Outstanding Wayne County Senior 4-H Member award goes to a young man from the Cold Springs-Rileyville 4-H Club, Jason Chyle. Jason has been involved in dairy, swine, small engines, corn and tractor safety 4-H projects during his 11-year membership. He has been the president, vice president, treasurer, secretary, and game leader in his club besides teaming up on the parade, club exhibit, and bake sale committee.

Community service projects in which he has been involved include planting flowers, putting out Christmas luminaries, bundling trees for the Conservation office, litter pick up, holiday projects for shut ins and collecting goods for a local food pantry. A highlight in Jason's 4-H career came last fall when he participated in a national dairy show in Louisville, Ky. as a result of his distinctive placement in previous state shows. He has also attended 4-H camp and has given many demonstrations to his club. Jason's parents are Ella and Jack Chyle of Cold Springs. He is a recent graduate of Honesdale High School and plans on putting those special agricultural skills to work on the family farm.

Kevin Stahl, right, exhibited the 2001 Franklin County grand champion 4-H market hog, which was bought by Sniders Elevator for $2.10 per pound. Daryl Bomgardner, left, judged the show.

Do You Suffer From Fibromyalgia?

When I was introduced to New Image I was 50 pounds over weight and suffered from fibromyalgia I was so depressed and in pain the majority of the time I was taking steroids and four other medications, one of which made me so "groggy" I could hardly get out of bed and another gave me ulcers I began taking New Image secretly because I thought my family would make fun of me After a month, I discovered I had lost eight pounds and seven inches Wow! Then it dawned on me, I was feeling better, the depression and pain were gone In two months I was off all medications "I feel SUPERIFIC" Now, two years later I have lost 43 pounds and 30 inches Thank you New Image for giving me a new life again
