

Snider Homestead Guernsey Defends Place In Winner's Circle

HARRISBURG (Dauphin Co.) — Guernsey enthusiasts brought animals from states including Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, Missouri, New York, Ohio, and South Carolina to the National Guernsey show conducted here last Wednesday during All-American week.

For the second straight year, Cedar Fringed Altann, a 5-year-old cow owned by Aaron Gable of Bedford County took home grand champion honors and went on to compete for the supreme championship.

Gable manages a Guernsey herd on Snider Homestead Farm, New Enterprise.

Reserve champion female of the open show was an aged cow from Arrow Head Guerneys of Union, Mo.

Emily Stuff of Mercersburg exhibited the junior grand champion while a heifer owned by Edward Gill and family of Ohio won the reserve.
