Land O'Lakes Announces Scholarships

CARLISLE (Cumberland Co.) — Twenty local students were honored with scholarships from Land O'Lakes, a farmer-owned cooperative. The scholarship is awarded annually to qualified family members of Land O'Lakes producers who are continuing their education. Elected dairy leaders who represent Land O'Lakes producer-members select the recipients, who are located in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey.

"The scholarship program provides an opportunity for Land O'Lakes to assist those young people who are part of this cooperative and work hard at their studies," said Jim Barnett, membership manager. "It's an investment in the future of our members and our cooperative."

This year's recipients include:

- Irene Ann Hibbard, daughter of Milan and Cecelia Hibbard, Springville. She is a junior at East Stroudsburg University, studying special education and elementary education.
- Laurie Schriener and Micah Scott Russell. Laurie lives in Ulster, and is the daughter of Steven Schriener. She is a high school honor student planning to study elementary education at Lycoming College. Micah is a sophomore at Cedarville University, studying middle childhood education. He and his parents, Donald and Debra Russell, live in Rome.
- James Harvey Neyhard, a Penn State sophomore studying Dairy and Animal Science. He and his mother Diane Walton Neyhard live in Milton.
- Justin Robinson, son of Thomas and Jeanette Robinson, Petersburg. A high school senior, Justin is planning to study ag and extension education at Penn State.
- Diana Marie Bigelow, daughter of Richard and Cindy Bigelow of Williamsburg. Diane is a high school senior planning to study agricultural business at Penn State Altoona next year.
- Leslie Denise Zug, a Shippensburg University sophomore studying business. Leslie Denise and her parents, Arthur and Dina Zug, live in Mifflintown.

- Jill Hoover, daughter of Gordon and Carole Hoover of Gap. She is a high school senior planning to study animal science at Penn State University.

- Laura Stoltzfus, daughter of Gary and Sharon Stoltzfus from Elverson. Laura is a sophomore at Grove City College, studying accounting.

- Katherine Harwick, daughter of Keith and Beth Harwick from Kempton. Katherine is a high school senior planning to study ag science at Penn State.

- Dana Marie Stafford, daughter of Wayne and Sandra Stafford from Elkton, Md. Dana is a sophomore studying computer applications at Cecil Community College.

- Jeremy Schnebly, son of John and Pam Schnebly of Clear Spring, Md. Jeremy is a freshman studying agriculture — landscaping — lawn care at Hagers-town Community College.
