

PennAg Industries Association Hires Director Of Governmental Affairs

HARRISBURG (Dauphin Co.) — PennAg Industries President James L. Adams of Wenger's Feed Mill, Inc. has announced the appointment of Amy Van Blarcom to the new director of governmental affairs position with PennAg Industries Association located in Harrisburg.

"Ms. Van Blarcom will provide PennAg with enthusiasm, dedication and bring a fresh face to the table as she assists in the monitoring and oversight of legislative activities and regulatory programs that impact agricultural businesses," Adams said.

"Furthermore, as an advocate for agricultural businesses and advanced agriculture, Amy will provide education and information to the public at large."

Van Blarcom is deeply rooted in the agriculture industry and recognizes the issues surrounding the growth of agriculture today from her upbringing on a dairy farm to her most recent employment as a liaison through the Joint Ombudsman Program with PennAg Industries and the state conservation districts.

Adams said, with her previous experience in communication and public relations as the manager of communications with Dairy Farmers of America, Inc. Van Blarcom brings a superb communication skills to PennAg. She received a B.S. Degree in agriculture communications from Cornell University.
