

More Than 950 4-H'ers Participate In Achievement Days

UNIVERSITY PARK (Centre Co.) — This is a continuation of last week's article that appeared on pages B12-B14 on Aug. 31. More than 950 4-H'ers from 57 Pennsylvania counties participated in the 2002 4-H Achievement Days, July 20 through August 2, on the Penn State main campus.

Pictured here are the first place teams and high scoring individuals in the diversified competitions.

Junior Hippology, High Scoring Individual, Sarah Miller, Indiana County.

Senior Hippology, High Scoring Individual (tie), Jaclyn Belczyk, Erie County.

Senior Hippology, High Scoring Individual (tie), Katey Graffman, Lehigh County.

Senior Horse Judging, High Scoring Individual, Natalie Cutugno, Lancaster County.

Public Speaking, High Scoring Individual, Samantha Barrett, Bradford County.

Senior Livestock Judging, High Scoring Individual, Gwen Powers, Berks County.

Junior Livestock Judging, High Scoring Individual, Adam Zurin, Lancaster County.

Canine Super Bowl, High Scoring Individual, Samantha Simmons, Chester County.

Junior Meat Judging, High Scoring Individual, Kimberly Angstadt, Berks County.

Senior Meat Judging, High Scoring Individual, Hope Long, York County.

Food and Nutrition, High Scoring Individual, Stephanie Wolfe, Lehigh County.

Textile Science, High Scoring Individual, Sarah Graybill, Lancaster County.

Junior Air Pistol Team, Bucks County. From left, Paul Burkhart and Jonathan Schweitzer. Unavailable for photo, Michael Esposito.

Physical Fitness High Scoring Individuals, Delaware County. From left, Todd Gallen and Flana York.

Horse Bowl, High Scoring Individual, Emily Fair, Bucks County.

Rabbit Cavy, High Scoring Individual, Megan Gutekunst, Dauphin County.

4-H HAPPENINGS

Susquehanna County Deckertown 4-H Club Deckertown 4-H Club conducted its fifth meeting July 8. Meggie Klees called the meeting to order. Pledges were said and the treasurer gave a report. Thank you notes from Bailey Apartments were read.

Members who won top awards at Fashion Revue were congratulated. Meggie Klees in senior division will advance to state competition. Megan Lewis won first year, Jenna Fuller won third year, and Anna Chichura and Emily Klees won fourth year.

Members that attended Camp Brule taught some camp songs. A group trip to an amusement park will be postponed until next year. Suggestions were made to improve the club's food stand at Sheepy Hollow.

Presentations were made by A.J. Artley on raising goats, Scott Harrison on model rocket recovery systems, and Ben Schack on planning designs for his wood working clocks.

At the previous meeting, members met at Bailey Apartments to plant flower boxes for the residents. A picnic supper followed. Eric Potter did a presentation on electrical conductors and Jaimie Himka and Latifa did a presentation on cheerleading.