ly in Lititz.

Johanna sold the grand champion hog for $3.50 per pound to Manheim Auto Auction, represented by Bob Slade.

Johanna noted she walks the gilt every night and spends a lot of time — about a half hour to 45 minutes every day — walking and exercising it to keep the hog “lean and free-moving,” she said.

Brian Nolt, who exhibited a 238-pound medium weight champion Blue Butt gilt, purchased the hog from Jim Martin Show Pigs. Brian sold the hog to Wes Ferguson, sales representative for Engle Printing and Publishing, for $3.10 per pound.

Brian, 12, is the son of Dale and Sandy Nolt, Manheim. Brian attends seventh grade at Lititz Area Mennonite.

Joelynn Donough, Manheim, exhibited the grand champion lamb, her first supreme champion at Manheim. She sold the 128-pound homebred Suffolk wether, nicknamed “Dexter” (from the character on Cartoon Network), for $3.75 per pound to Fulton Bank, represented by Lowell Fry and Mike Firestone.

Joelynn, 15, is the daughter of Ed and Larue Donough, Manheim. Joelynn, a freshman at Manheim Central High School, said she trains the Suffolk homebred wether, spending a lot of time in preparation — about two hours each day. She has exhibited at New Holland Farmers' Fair and plans to show at state Farm Show.

Derick Bollinger, Manheim, showed the reserve champion market lamb, the reserve champion heavyweight weighing 134 pounds. The ewe was purchased at a sale in Eaton, Ohio, and sold as a breeding ewe. Late last week, the lamb sold to Manheim Auto Auction at the livestock sale, represented by Rick Budnyk, for $3 per pound.

Derick, 18, son of Gene and Carol Bollinger, Manheim, is a 2002 graduate of Manheim Central High School and is a freshman at Delaware Valley College majoring in large animal science. The Manheim FFA member is also on the state 4-H and FFA livestock judging team, which won at the state level and is advancing to national competition.

At the sale, Brian Geib, Manheim, exhibited the champion goat, which weighed 80 pounds and sold for $6.10 per pound to Manheim Auto Auction, represented by Bob Slade.

Reserve goat, exhibited by Derek Spayd, Mount Joy, sold for $4 per pound to Engle Publishing, represented by Wes Ferguson, sales representative.

Grand champion steer, exhibited by Cody Musser, Mount Joy, weighed 1,197 pounds and sold for $2.60 per pound to Dorothy Metzler. Reserve champion, weighing 1,254 pounds and exhibited by Ryan Donough, sold for $2 per pound to Hoss's Steak and Seafood House, represented by Rob Billet.
