Belsnickel Craft Show Moves To Boyertown Senior High

BOYERTOWN (Berks Co.) — This year's 32nd annual Belsnickel Craft Show presenting approximately 140 local and regional juried artisans will be conducted on Friday, Nov. 29 from noon-8 p.m. and on Saturday, Nov. 30 from 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Proceeds from the show fund the Boyertown Area Historical Society's programs, maintenance of the historic building and museum, research and genealogical library collections, and educational programs.

Among the traditional crafts on display will be woodworking and woodcarving, pottery, baskets, tin, papier mache folk art, dolls and doll clothing, women's and children's clothing, silver and gold jewelry, quilts and quilted items, dried flowers, tole, weaving, scherenschnitte (paper cutting), clay sculpture, fraktur, Santas, stained glass, punched-tin art, wooden toys and Christmas items.

Among the craftspeople will be Lisa Teller Short whose 18th and 19th-century fraktur and folk art watercolor drawings in grained frames have been named to "Early American Life's" Directory of Traditional American Crafts® listing the 200 top artisans in their fields.

Directions to the show: From the north and west of Boyertown, take Rt. 73 East through Boyertown and turn left on Washington Street, turn right on Fourth Street, and left on Monroe Street. Free bus transportation will be provided from major parking locations to show location. Refreshments will be available. Admission is $3; children under 12 years of age are admitted free, if accompanied by an adult. Location is handicapped accessible.

Antiques Questions And Answers

I have a celluloid vanity set with seven pieces in the original box that was my grandmothers. How old do you think it is and what could it be worth?
C.D.C. - Chicago, IL

Your vanity set, in good condition, could sell for $150 in a shop. It was made in the 1920s or 1930s.

I found an old-fashioned pine rocker at a garage sale for $50. Can you tell me anything about it from this photo?

M.T. - Dallas, TX

Your Boston-style rocker photo shows it was handmade. Probably late 19th century. It could sell in a shop for $300 or more.

I dug up this old milk bottle while planting flowers in my back yard. It says "Empire State Dairy Co., Brooklyn" with what I think is an embossed state seal. Did I discover a treasure?

E.L.- Brooklyn, NY

There are many collectors of old milk bottles so prices keep going up. You might get $150 for yours at a mall show.
