

'Tis The Season To Give Homemade Cheese Gifts — Packaging Ideas

Easy, cheesy gifts are simple to create and are ideal for almost everyone on your list:

Mother's Helper — Present a cheese board with wedges of tangy Cheddar, zesty Monterey Jack and savory Parmesan and attach cards with your favorite cheese recipes. Visit ilovecheese.com for a variety of "grate" recipes from baked Brie to Mascarpone fondue.

Dad's Toolbox — Give the tools he'll really use...cheese knives, graters and slicers in a handy toolbox along with a selection of cheeses such as rich Gouda and smooth Provolone.

Kiddie Cut Outs — Share the spirit of the season with kids by giving cheese in fun holiday shapes. Use holiday cookie cutters to cut cheese, then wrap the cheese cutouts in festive plastic wrap.

Family Flavor Favors — You can't go wrong with cheese, America's favorite comfort food. Design coupons for family members good for cheesy meals such as gooey grilled cheese, cheese-alicious pizza and creamy mac and cheese.

Romancing the Cheese — Stay warm by the crackling fire this holiday season with gourmet American-made cow's milk cheeses and a bottle of wine.

ers merry with goody bags filled with a wedge of cheese like sweet Swiss, smoked Cheddar, and nutty Edam, tie with festive ribbon and attach a cheese knife.

Hostess with the Mostest — Arrive at the party with cheese and wine in hand. Make holiday get-togethers fun — sample pairings with a printer-friendly Cheese and Wine Tasting Kit available on ilovecheese.com.

Guest Goodie Giveaway —

Throwing a holiday party? Don't let your guests leave empty-handed. A creamy cheese ball wrapped in festive colored cellophane makes the perfect party favor. Try cookbook author Paula Lambert's Cheddar Cheese Ball with Chutney recipe on ilovecheese.com.
